NEWTON GIRL SCOUTS

Hold Annual Meeting and Elect Officers for Ensuing Year

On Thursday, May 26, the Newton Local Council, Girl Scouts held its Annual meeting in the parlors of the Unitarian Church, West Newton.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock—Scouts from the West Newton Troop acting as waitresses.

Reports were read by the Secretary, Treasurer and the following officers were elected for the coming year.

Commissioner—Mrs. Frank A. Day, Newton, Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, Newtonville, Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. George M. Angier, Waban, Secretary, Mrs. C. D. Merves, Newtonville, Treasurer, Mrs. John N. Eaton, West Newton, Chairman of Executive Committee, Mrs. Albert P. Carter, Newtonville, Chairman Courts of Awards, Miss Jeanne Kenrick, Newton, Chairman Finance Committee, Mr. Charles E. Hatfield, West Newton, Mrs. Edward A. Andrews, Newton Centre.

Miss Caroline Freeman of West Newton, local director for the Newton Girl Scouts read a most interesting report of the work accomplished during the past year.

There are 271 registered Girl Scouts in Newton at present and in her report Miss Freeman stated that new Scouts are joining the Troops every week. There are 27 Commissioned Officers. Of these 6 are captains, 19 lieutenants, and 2 second lieutenants. Some of these officers are doing double duty and if counted in this double capacity it would bring the number well into the thirties.

Miss Freeman spoke particularly of the Merit Badge work which has been carried on during Troop meetings this year and in which the girls have been greatly interested. There have been short courses given for the Milliner, Hostess, Invalid Cook, Cook, Home maker, Dancer, Musician, Laundress.

Needlewoman, Bird Hunter, Economist, Rock Tapper, Zoologist tests, and in First Aid and Basketry. There courses have been given under the leadership of competent women and when the girls have finally taken their tests and won the badges they have felt that they have really accomplished something worth while.

Mrs. Arthur W. Hartt, of Brookline, Commissioner of the Massachusetts Council Girl Scouts was the guest of honor at this meeting. She spoke to the Council, on "What a Council may do for its Scouts."

Miss Dorothy Dean, Field Captain for the Metropolitan Division Girl Scouts was also present and gave a short talk on "What other Troops are Doing."

Troop 8—Newton is to have a new Troop of Girl Scouts, Troop 8, Auburndale. The first meeting will be on Monday, June 6, in the Hall of the Burr School at 3:45. There are 16 Auburndale Girls in the West Newton Troop and these girls will be of great assistance to the Captain, Mrs. Watson in starting this new Troop. They will act as Patrol leaders and help instruct the new girls. All girls over 10 years old, living in Auburndale, who would like to be girl Scouts are cordially invited to join this Troop.

Troop 5—On Tuesday, May twenty-fourth, the Scouts of Troop Five held a regular meeting in the parlors of the Congregational Church of West Newton.

Ruth Glancy, Helen Palmateer, Barbara Hansen, Ruth Ufford, Elizabeth Bliss and Alice Batson were awarded the Tenderfoot Pin.

The first Medal of Merit ever awarded to a Scout of Troop Five was given to Ethel Laughlin for an excellent school record.

MOTHERS' DAY

Special Observance at Newton Vocational High School

The household arts department of the Newton Vocational High School held its annual mothers' day on Thursday, May 18, 1921. This year variety was given to the affair by having a May Day program out of doors. During the early part of the afternoon, Miss Jeannie B. Kenrick, supervisor of the department; Miss Hunt of the State Board of Vocational Education and members of the faculty received the mothers of the school. An extensive exhibition of the work done by the sewing classes was held at this time.

The guests were then invited out of doors, where the grounds south of the building offered an ideal setting for the May Day festivities. Miss Marion Cash was Queen of the May. The following program was presented:

Processional—Welcome, Miss Ken-

Greetings from the State Board of Vocational Education—Miss Hunt. Crowning of May Queen.

Pipes of Pan—The Senior girls.

Marguerites—The Junior girls.

Song—Voices of the Woods, the school.

Polka—The Elementary girls.

Solo-Dance—Priscilla James.

Norwegian Mountain Dance—The Freshman girls.

Playmates—The Sophomore girls.

Song—The Skylark, the school.

The Minuet.

—Maypole Dance.

Presentation of Bread Prizes—Miss Kenrick.

Senior Girls—Priscilla James.

Junior Girls—Gladys Haskell.

Freshman Girls—Bessie Baltzer (first prize), Helen Kiley (second prize).

Elementary Girls—Edna King (first prize), Anna Norton (second prize).

Presentation of Health Prizes to Elementary Girls—Elizabeth Jordan (first prize), Grace Merriman (second prize).

The Maypole Dance, the minuet and the "Pipes of Pan" were particularly effective numbers. At the close of the program, an informal good time was held, and the mothers assembled at the class tables for refreshments. Each table was prettily decorated with a small Maypole carrying out the class colors. It was felt by everyone present that this year's party was one of the most successful ever given by the school.

OPENS CLUB HOUSE

Auburndale Club Invites Distinguished Guests to House Warming

The Auburndale Club, Inc., formally opened its new clubhouse at the junction of Melrose, Ash and Auburn streets, Auburndale, on Wednesday evening, and several hundred gentlemen were present to inspect the building and to greet the distinguished guests who were present.

The president, Dr. J. Arthur Furbish, was in charge, and remarks were made by Hon. B. Loring Young of Weston, Speaker of the House; Senator William J. Napier of Natick; Representative Bernard Early of Newton and Mayor Edwin O. Childs. Light refreshments were served.

The Auburndale Club is an outgrowth of the Auburndale unit of the Newton Constabulary and is therefore rather unique in its membership. For some time the club met at the old Woodland Park Hotel, but soon felt the need of a home of its own, and last year the old Briggs estate was purchased.

One of the striking features of the clubhouse is the fact that the work of transforming the old house into its present comfortable and attractive shape was largely done by members of the club, and it is estimated that over 6000 hours of work were thus contributed. The result speaks volumes for the versatility and excellent handiwork of the men. The house contains a reception room, kitchen, pool room, bowling alleys, card rooms and coat rooms. For the present the building will be open each evening, Sunday afternoons and evenings and all day on holidays. The club dues are but $15 a year.

The officers of the club are: Dr. Furbish, president; George Brophy, vice president; Francis McGill, treasurer; Earl H. Ordway, secretary, with C. E. Valentine, M. C. Hutchins and L. D. Berry as directors.

SPLENDID OBSERVANCE

Of Memorial Day in This City Under Auspices of Charles Ward Post, G. A. R.

The observance of Memorial Day in this city last Monday under the auspices of Charles Ward Post of the Grand Army, was far above the average, albeit, there were few people out to witness the parade and to hear the exercises at the Newton Cemetery.

While the morning was cloudy, the afternoon was clear and the sun was hot.

Details of the Post, assisted by members of the American Legion, Spanish War Veterans and the Sons of Veterans, decorated the graves in the various cemeteries in the city in the early morning and then went to Newton Lower Falls for the usual exercises at St. Mary's Church yard where 25 comrades lie buried. The exercises here were conducted by Senior Vice Commander George H. Osborne and the address was delivered by Rev. Geo. R. Wolverton of the Perrin Memorial Church.

Leaving the churchyard the veterans marched to the banks of the Charles River, close by, where the beautiful ceremony of casting flowers on its waters in memory of the sailor dead, was impressively performed.

The Grand Army veterans and the members of the staff of Mayor Edwin O. Childs, the chief marshal of the day, were guests of the Newton Centre Improvement Association at luncheon at noon in Bray Hall, Newton Centre.

The usual afternoon parade was formed at Centre Green about one o'clock with Major C. Raymond Cabot as Adjutant General and Past Dept. Commander Wilfred A. Wetherbee as Chief of Staff.

The line was formed as follows:

SPLendid OBSERVANCE

where a stop was made before the John A. Andrew Home for Grand Army veterans and their wives.

The band played "The Stars and Stripes Forever" for the entertainment of the 21 inmates of the home.

The parade then passed through Walnut and Washington streets to the State Armory at West Newton, being reviewed by Mayor Childs and staff, opposite the Truck house on Washington street.

An unfortunate incident took place as the Grand Army were entering the Armory, when Commander Valentine Wayland fell down stairs while on his way to the basement and broke his wrist. He was taken to the Newton Hospital. Later, after the banquet, Comrade Lewis Slater was overcome by the heat just outside the Armory and was taken to the home of a friend in West Newton.

As a result of the accident to Commander Wayland, the office of toastmaster at the banquet was taken by Past Dept. Commander W. A. Wetherbee, who extended a soldier's welcome to those present and in particular to the three organizations which had united to celebrate the day.

Major Child, the chief marshal of the day, was the first speaker and was received with hearty cheers and responded with one of his usual eloquent speeches. He paid a high tribute of respect to those who had made it possible for us to have a nation and a flag and to those who on two later occasions had proved the principle for which the flag stands. He recalled what this country had cost in lives and treasure during its five wars and believed we should pay the debt of gratitude by a cleaner manhood and better citizenship.

Rev. Harry Lutz believed that Memorial Day was just as sacred as the church hour on Sunday and deplored the holiday aspect which is now prevalent. He urged that the memories of the day might be an inspiration to fulfill the high motives of those who paid the last great sacrifice.

Remarks were also made by Major Cabot as adjutant general, Vice-President Stephen H. Whidden of the city government, Capt. McClellan of Co. H. Col. Frederick W. Stoppard of the regular army, a recent comer in Newton, Alderman L. B. Rogers, Commander A. E. Brouillette of Spanish War Veterans, Commander George B. Caldwell of the Sons of Veterans and Mrs. Susan R. Wetherbee of the Daughters of Veterans. The banquet closed with the singing of "America."

UNION SERVICE

The speaker at the Union Service of the five Newton churches intimated Sunday night that our Ambassador to England has not spoken the real mind of the American people. But if Mr. Harvey is right and the richest nation in the world is now planning the largest navy in existence and refusing to enter any league to enforce peace so that she may be free to follow only selfish ambition: foreign powers would be wise to take warning and we ourselves should face frankly our plan for threatening the peace of the world. When the Committee on disarmament called the League of Nations to discuss reduction of armaments, most nations were willing, but Japan very tactfully suggested that she, with a nation next door building the largest navy in the world and refusing to be bound by any league of nations, could hardly give up protecting herself. Right there disarmament stopped.

America seems to be accepting the psychology of force which led Germany into the world war. For 1921 we gave the army and Navy directly $857,000,000... more than three times as much as in the highest pre-war year. And against whom are we arming? Not against Germany for her navy is extinct. Not against starving Austria. We must be arming against one of our late allies.

A huge army and navy are not guarantees of peace. Nations like Germany who have become militaristic have suffered most from war. If we really want peace, in this day when starving children are eating grass because they cannot wait for the harvest, when millions are starving to death, why not spend our millions in buying bread to ship to them and give it saying, "This is my body which was broken for you, take, eat this." That deed would do more to keep us out of war than all our new ships.

If you had been a German fifty years ago and you had heard one voice calling your nation to arm to the teeth, to strike fear into all your enemies, and you had heard another voice urging your nation to use her money strengthening the bonds of friendship with all other nations, which would you have urged your nation to follow? Germany followed force. Today America is choosing which way she shall go. Which way are you favoring?

The audience was urged to write Senators and Representatives urging that the United States call a meeting of other governments to urge the limitation of armaments by international agreement.

Lasell

The big tent which has been erected at the Lasell campus for some of the commencement festivities, was the scene on Friday evening of last week of a very wonderful circus. The performance was given by the Juniors. There was a fine display of wild animals, the side shows fascinating and the daring performances of the artists so awe-inspiring they brought the the time thrill.

Hundreds of guests were present at the May fete which took place on Saturday afternoon when Miss Lillian Doane of Montreal, Canada, was chosen May Queen and Miss Neil West of East Orange, N. J., maid of honor.

A procession of students, according to classes, wended its way across the campus to the steps of the flower-decked throne, forming a double line through which passed the May Queen and her attendants, Priscilla Winslow as crown bearer, Mary Elizabeth Keever and May Cardwell as flower girls, were very lovely, followed by the beautiful Queen and maid of honor. After the coronation the different classes kneeling before the Queen paid homage in song and a pageant of Pilgrims Old and New was presented. History, Miss Thelma Blossom of Indianapolis, comes upon a group of children about to wind their May Pole. They besiege her with questions concerning the world. In order to answer, she calls upon the years, Past, Present, and Future, to give their dances.

The children then want to know about the first people in America. History explains how the Pilgrims left England in search of religious freedom, and how they eventually came to America, sailing across the sea. She adds that many a Pilgrim has come since then, all seeking freedom; and when once in America, all are free and equal, and under one flag.

The Woodland Park school held its field day on Tuesday afternoon, the Greens winning the silver cup for this year. The individual races were as follows: Potato race won by Mary Elizabeth Keever, and Evelia Chang.

The A. 50-yd. dash, Janet Rutherford; M. Natalie Best. Peter James won the 50-yd. dash for boys. Running broad jump, A. Louise Mueller; B. Natalie Best. Hop, skip and jump, Louise Mueller; B. Virginia Coles.

At the close of the meet Lasell girls from Mademoiselle Le Royer's French department entertained the junior school and children from the village with a Punch and Judy show.

On Wednesday afternoon the Woodland Park School closed the school year. A very fine musicalale by the pupils was given, followed by a performance entitled, "The Road to By and By" adapted from "In the Morning Glow" by Roy Roll Gibson, in which Christine Burton, Elizabeth Bors, Mary Elizabeth Keever, Maidie Cardwell, Louise Mueller, Esther Curtis, Inez Cabrera and Dorothy Messinger took part.

Miss Packard, the registrar, who has a year's leave of absence, has returned from spending the winter in California, and during the visit to the school last week led the chapel exercises.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the annual meeting of the Aquinas Debating Society of Our Lady's High School, held Wednesday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: James A. Murnaghan, 22, president; Joseph P. Murphy, '22, vice president; Thomas V. Geagan, '22, secretary; Joseph L. Crandall, '23, treasurer, and Henry Walsh, '22, sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. Farlow gave us the Park and the Library Building. Some good citizens gave the little Park in front of the Baptist Church, and now the Burr family have conferred a lasting favor on us in the present of that magnificent playground. Who will beautify the approach to our R. R. station.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

On Friday, May 27, 1921, Margaret F., the wife of Mr. John G. Tompson of 88 Otis street, Newtonville, passed quietly out of this life after a long period of failing health and lately of absolute helplessness.

Born Nov. 11, 1823 at Portsmouth, N. H., she was married to Mr. Tompson Sept. 24, 1856.

In February of 1860 the young couple came to live in Newtonville (then "Hull's Crossing") in the same house that has been their home for sixty-one years. The village has grown into a town, the town into a city in those years; but "the Tompson house" has remained always ready to keep "open house" whenever need or occasion arose.

Mrs. Tompson was a daughter of "Schoolmaster Weeks," a figure well known in Portsmouth a hundred years ago. He was for some years owner and publisher of the New Hampshire Gazette.

Her mother ("Nabby" Hubbard of Kennebunk) was noted for her hospitality of which a characteristic instance is that she always hastened to invite to tea any new minister who came to settle in Portsmouth, that he might in this way meet his brother ministers of all the other denominations.

Just such hospitality Mrs. Tompson loved and practised; and the home at 88 Otis street has been for more than half a century noted for its hospitable open doors and its cordial welcome to newcomers and old friends alike.

Always interested in books as well as people, and active in promoting social life around them, Mr. and Mrs. Tompson were among a small group who met to read together, and out of this informal reading circle grew the Every Saturday Club which last October celebrated its 50th Anniversary. Another small beginning with which Mrs. Tompson was associated was a Morning Book and Basket Club (some reading aloud, the others mending or sewing) which eventually organized and became the Newtonville Woman's Guild.

Among the many parties, receptions, and informal good times which are associated with this house such notable anniversaries as the Tin Wedding, the Silver Wedding, the Golden Wedding, the "open house" on the 55th Anniversary of coming to live in this home stand out with especial prominence.

In recent years, as Mrs. Tompson's bodily powers failed it has become an annual custom for her friends without formal invitation to gather around her on her birthday to give her of their good wishes and continued remembrance.

There are people in many parts of the world whose lives are deeper and broader and sweeter because of the cordial hospitality of this home, and who remember Mrs. Tompson as the gracious centre and animating spirit there. Such seemed still the feeling when, for the last time in the old home, friends gathered around her to wish her well on her homecoming into that freer life from which the feeble body had so long withheld her. Surely we may well say with Dickens, "And thank God for that old, old fashion Death;—and thank God, too, for that older fashion yet of Immortality."

Beside her husband, she is survived by two daughters, the Misses Grace and Kittie Tompson of Newtonville.

A simple service was held Sunday afternoon, May 29, at the house, Rev. John Goddard officiating. In keeping with the traditions of the house, friends were welcomed to see her once again, but Mrs. Tompson's feeling was carefully respected:

"Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me;

And may there be no sadness of fare-well when I put out to sea."

THE BURR PLAYGROUND

To the Editor of the Graphic: The dedication of the Burr Playground recently was a marked event in our history and shows that we have among us men and women, who like to use their money for the public good. I have been wishing for a long time that some one or more of our well to do citizens might be moved to purchase the property in front of our R. R. Station—to Centre place—tear down the buildings thereon, and make a beautiful little Park which would be a thing of beauty forever.

It might well be called "Ware" Park in honor of Bruce Ware, a Newton boy, who is reputed to have fired the first American gun in the late war and whom Newton has never had yet honored for it. It might be dedicated to the boys and girls who served in the war—some of whom giving up their lives. All of the other Newtons have pleasant surroundings to their R. R. Stations. But what of ours—inspiring sight isn't it that greets strangers as they alight at Newton? With a pretty little Park there, the Public Library and Vernon Court would greet their visitors with a Punch and Judy show.

On Wednesday afternoon the Woodland Park School closed the school year. A very fine musicalale by the pupils was given, followed by a performance entitled, "The Road to By and By" adapted from "In the Morning Glow" by Roy Roll Gibson, in which Christine Burton, Elizabeth Bors, Mary Elizabeth Keever, Maidie Cardwell, Louise Mueller, Esther Curtis, Inez Cabrera and Dorothy Messinger took part.

Miss Packard, the registrar, who has a year's leave of absence, has returned from spending the winter in California, and during the visit to the school last week led the chapel exercises.

POGUE—POWELL

All Saint's Church, Brookline, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, when Miss Ruth Elliot Powell of Essex Road, Chestnut Hill, became the bride of Mr. Province Law Pogue of New York City. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Barrett Tyler.

The bride wore a gown of white net embroidered in pearls over white satin. The maid of honor, Miss Helen Macdowell of Toronto, Canada, wore orchid chiffon, and the bridesmaids, Miss Freda Trip of Ottawa, Miss Margaret Morton, Miss Jane Morton, Miss Lillian Morrell, all of Brookline, wore pink chiffon and blue chiffon gowns, while the two matrons of honor, Mrs. Donald Myers and Mrs. Ralph Thomas of Brookline, wore yellow chiffon.

A reception at Hotel Beaconsfield followed the ceremony at the church.

The groom is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

The feature of the last Troop meeting was the initiation of our ten new scouts. After all were branded with the troop numeral with fire and paint, the boys did some high jumping and fancy eating for the amusement of the entire troop.

On Sunday, the scouts appeared in full uniform at the memorial services in the Second Church. The scouts marched in to the chancel directly behind the chancel choir and Mr. Park. The pledge to the flag was given and the "Star-Spangled Banner" sung. Mr. Park preached an eloquent patriotic and social sermon, praising our heroes in the great war, and the scouts in khaki of the present day. Scoutmaster Crowell led the boys.

Assistant Scoutmasters Dow and Cooke were in charge of the boys in the Memorial Day parade. Tonight these same masters will work with the boys.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Mason School

Memorial Day exercises were held in the Mason Hall on Friday afternoon.

The Civil war veterans were represented by Mr. Mick and the world war by Messrs. Foley and Libby. Music by a chorus of boys and by the school, a playlet picturing Civil and World war scenes and an inspiring talk by Mr. Mick furnished the program.

Baseball scores are as follows: Mason versus Bigelow, 16 to 6; Mason versus Pierce, 6 to 0, in favor of the Mason team. The boys are doing good work.

The sixth grade of the Mason had a delightful afternoon at the Arnold Arboretum on Thursday, May 26. They climbed Oak Hill there and saw the beautiful flowers and shrubs.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

A patriotic entertainment was given in the school hall on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by the pupils of the school. The various numbers on the program, consisting of songs, readings and group exercises, were well received by the large audience.

The baseball team lost to the Hyde School at Newton Upper Falls by a score of 8 to 6 on Thursday of last week.

The kindergarten children were delighted with the gift of a large dollhouse, which came from the Twombly House last week. It has nine rooms, to be furnished by the children, and the rooms can be lighted by electricity.

A beautiful Cecropia moth emerged from its cocoon in the kindergarten last week. It was exhibited in most of the class rooms and then flew away to freedom through an open window.

Bigelow School

Mr. Reed was the speaker at the Memorial Day exercises in the Assembly Hall last week. In addition to Mr. Reed's address, there was an interesting program, consisting of recitations and patriotic music.

A group of girls from the fifth and sixth grades gave a play entitled "A Puritan Prank" at the Friday afternoon assembly. The staging and costuming were looked after entirely by the children. Their efforts were much appreciated by the audience.

The Roger Wolcott School

The faculty of the Angier School will contain at least two new faces next year: Miss Burbank and Miss Doolittle. Miss Burbank is being transferred from the Newton Centre District to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Kimball from the position of Kindergartner. Miss Doolittle is to take the sixth grade. Mrs. Pearl E. Forbes, for the past three years a most efficient building assistant, is to have the fifth grade next year.

There are hopes at present of holding the graduation and dedication exercises of the new Albert Edgar Angier School in the new building auditorium, the latter part of this month.

The Wolcott School baseball team is still in the league running and hopes to tie for first place by winning its game this week with the Emerson School.

Stearns School

The Newton Girls' Club sent to the State League meeting at Pittsfield three delegates, Miss Anna Morrison, president; Miss Ruth Stubbert and Miss Mae Fisher. A report of the club's portion in the next State League budget was given by Miss Fisher at the general business meeting on Saturday, May 28th. A sightseeing trip through the Berkshires, an Interclub tea and an outdoor program at Poonaoc Island Vacation House were special features of the convention on Sunday, May 29th, and Monday, May 30th.

The eighth grade put on a very successful minstrel show Thursday evening. The children enjoyed a special performance Wednesday evening. The money derived will be used to uniform the boys' baseball team and to pay the expenses of a class trip to Provincetown.

Hyde School

Memorial Day exercises were observed by both buildings of the Hyde School on Friday of last week. After the program of patriotic songs and recitations and two short plays very beautifully given by the sixth grades, the school was addressed by Mr. C. C. Patten, veteran of the Civil war, who attended the exercises with Mr. William Bell of the U. S. Navy. At the close of his remarks, he was presented with floral tributes from the school by Little Misses Eleanor Savage and Barbara Johnson. We were pleased to have a number of the parents as our guests on this occasion.

The kindergarten children enjoyed their annual outing recently. About forty of the little tots with their teachers and some of the mothers went in autos to Franklin Park, where they spent a very delightful morning together.

We are glad to hear that Miss Marquette Flanders, our assistant kindergartner, who has been ill at her home for a week, is much better and will soon be with us again.

Miss Hanscom's eighth grade held a lively debate a few days ago on the query: "Resolved, that ship transportation does more for society than the railroad." The negative won.

The seventh grade Audubon Bird Society, Mrs. Blakemore's room, at their last meeting, entertained Miss Abbott's seventh grade with a lantern lecture, showing fifty colored bird slides.

The fourth grades have recently had a lantern lesson on Holland, and the eighth grades have completed lessons on Lumbering. Rubber

A close friend to over Three Million Housewives

IN well over 3,000,000 homes throughout the country New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves are depended upon three times a day for well-cooked foods. And the housewives who use New Perfections have no friends more dependable than their oil cook stoves.

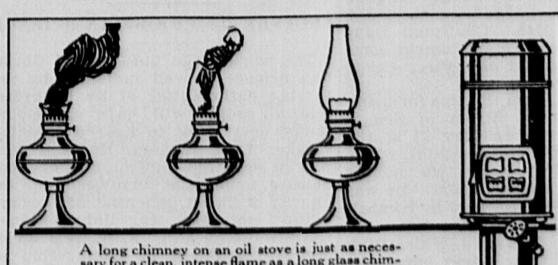

New Perfection users pride themselves upon having clean, cool and comfortable kitchens. There are no dirty coal-hod marks on the floor—no litter from kindling wood, ashes or soot.

With a New Perfection Oil Cook Stove you can obtain exactly the amount of heat you need for each kind of cooking. The high, white-tipped flame gives an intense heat for all fast cooking and baking; the long blue chimney delivers all of it directly to the utensil. Then for simmering and slow baking a low, even flame does the work perfectly and economically.

The New Perfection Stove complete with warming cabinet and a New Perfection Oven meets every cooking need for the average household. And for further convenience, the New Perfection Water Heater will supply hot water on short notice and at a trifling expense. New Perfection Cook Stoves are made in two, three, and four-burner sizes, with or without warming cabinet; also one-burner stove with no warming cabinet. They are sold everywhere by leading dealers. Remember the name—New Perfection.

For best results use Socony Kerosene

A long chimney on an oil stove is just as necessary for a clean, intense flame as a long glass chimney is on a lamp to secure a clean, bright light.

successful, and every one is now confidently awaiting the examinations for entrance to his next Alma Mater.

This year's commencement exercises, as they have been planned, should prove very successful. They take place on June 7 and 8, starting with field athletics (probably a baseball game) at three in the afternoon of the first day.

At eight that evening, there will be prize speaking in the gymnasium. The next morning, at eleven o'clock, comes the awarding of prizes, also in the gymnasium, immediately followed by the commencement address, to be given by the Rev. Huber Gray Buehler, M. A., Litt. D., headmaster of the Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Conn.

GIRL SCOUTS

Mrs. Day visited the meeting for a short time and extended an invitation to all the Scouts to attend a Lawn Party at her home on June 7.

During the regular meeting of the Troop, the Hostess Class, under the direction of Mrs. Maynard C. Hutchinson, served tea to a number of guests. The tea was a part of the test given the girls for the Hostess Merit Badge.

Mrs. Sidney Cook, a member of the Troop Committee, poured and sandwiches, cakes and candy made by the Scouts were served. Mrs. Marshall of Newton gave the examination after the guests had left.

Troop 7—Instead of having a regular meeting this week, Troop 7—the Upper Falls Troop—went on a picnic. The girls met at the school at 6 o'clock and hiked on the Quinobequin. All the Scouts were present, also a number of friends of the girls. Some of the Scouts passed their fire test. Captain Freeman built a big camp fire over which cocoanut was cooked for all. After supper there was a grand surprise. Two beautiful big birthday cakes for Scouts who were celebrating their birthdays. One for Scout Marcia Meyers of Patrol A and one for Bertha Hunting, Patrol C. Both these cakes were presented by the girls in Patrol D. Both were cut with great ceremony and the cake was enjoyed by all. After a game of ball the Troop hiked back home and all the Scouts agreed it was a fine Troop meeting.

Classical High School

The Memorial Day exercises were observed in the assembly hall last Friday. After the opening exercises, Mr. Adams spoke briefly on the occasion. The students taking part in the program were: John Wiggin, Edmund Woodward, Charles Clifford and Daniel Bianchi. Mr. Adams then introduced Mr. E. S. Ober, a member of the Grand Army, who was twice wounded during the Civil War. Mr. Ober, a resident of Maine, gave a descriptive summary of the battles in which he fought and also told of many personal experiences with many of our nation's great men. The last speaker was Mr. Duncan, a representative of the American Legion, who saw active service on a submarine chaser during the recent war. The services concluded with the singing of "America."

The less said about the holiday game with Rindge, the better. Newton was in the lead, 3 to 0, until the last of the eighth inning, when their opponents brought in 4 runs. Leahy was replaced in the seventh inning by Clausen.

On Wednesday, Newton met Cambridge Latin at Clafin Field. The final score was 12 to 1, Cambridge taking the third of the series of three games. A good shortstop would be the connecting link in Newton's erratic play.

This evening in the assembly hall there will be a concert by the musical clubs of the school. Selections will be given by the Girls' and the Boys' Glee Clubs and also by both the orchestra and the mandolin clubs. A vocal solo will be given by Louise Macleod and a piano solo by Sylvia Chapman. The concert is under the direction of Mr. H. M. Walton, who is supervisor of music in the Newton schools. The public is invited to attend.

Mount Ida School

The graduation exercises of the Mt. Ida School took place on Wednesday evening. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Harry Lutz, the address of the evening was given by Mr. John Calvin Ferguson, Ph. D., music was furnished by the school chorus.

The Fessenden School

On Saturday last, nineteen of the larger boys, together with Mr. Spenser, the athletic director, were permitted to witness the intercollegiate games at the Harvard Stadium. Mr. Fessenden had procured passes through the kindness of one of the Harvard officials, and he believed "treat certainly due the Fessenden athletes, especially the baseball team, which has carried off eighteen consecutive victories, so far, without a single defeat."

The final examinations for the school diploma are now a thing of the past, and every senior's fate is now decided. On the whole, the results were quite

Mayor Childs' veto of the grant to the Jenney Co. to locate a filling station at the corner of Beacon and Walnut streets was expected as he vetoed a similar matter last year on a nearby location. Last year the veto was not sustained and the permit was granted, but the Company had some difficulty in obtaining the land and abandoned the whole project. While we hold no brief for the Jenney Co., it seems evident that the use of this corner for this purpose will be an advantage and not a detriment to the city. If left to itself, this corner would undoubtedly develop, as the other corners have developed into a moderate or cheap class of buildings, erected close to the street lines and obstructing the view in all directions. The Jenney Co. has always erected attractive stations and they are built in such a fashion as not to obstruct the view. The location has the hearty approval of both the Newton Planning Commission and the Newton Centre Improvement Association; a fact which ought to have some bearing on the situation.

SCHOOL FIELD DAY

The Bigelow and Mason Schools will hold a field day next Thursday afternoon on the Newton Centre playground with a program including a ball game between the two schools, captain and fist ball for the girls, fist ball for the boys, tennis matches, a quoit contest, potato and obstacle races, 100 yd. dashes for boys and 75 for the girls, high and broad jumping and relay races for both boys and girls. The Playground Dept. will present ribbon prizes for the winners in all the events. The affair is in the hands of Mr. Brainerd of the Mason school and Mr. Lane of the Bigelow school.

1896 REUNION

The 25th reunion of the class of 1896, Newton High School, will be held at the Classical High School on Saturday, June 11. A committee composed of the officers of the class has been making extensive arrangements for this affair. The first feature of the program will be a reception in the library to members of the class with their wives and husbands. This will be followed by a display of the pictures of the members of the class taken at the time of graduation. During this the class historian, Marion Bassett, will summarize the history of the class down to the present time. At 6 o'clock dinner will be served in the Newton Club, after which there will be dancing and refreshments.

Mrs. Edward A. Andrews of Newton Centre is chairman and Mr. Russell C. Gibbs of Newtonville, secretary and treasurer.

PUPILS' COMMENCEMENT CONCERT

The Lasell Commencement Concert was given on Wednesday evening in the gymnasium before an audience which filled it to its capacity.

A program of unusual merit was presented consisting of selections for the organ, piano forte and voice.

Dresses of organdie, silk and other summery materials made a fine showing at the home economics exhibition which took place on Thursday afternoon; beside these exquisite handiwork was shown on luncheon sets many other articles dear to the heart of a housewife.

The millinery class had a splendid exhibit also and in the adjoining rooms delectable eatables were displayed. In the dining room of Carter Hall the table was set for a full course dinner—the attractive color scheme—the arrangement of the flowers—the appetizing courses—made it worthy of the high praise accorded it.

During the afternoon there was an art exhibition in the studio which was exceptionally fine.

This evening the Seniors will hold their reception, this to take place in the parlors of Woodland Park.

Dr. Ashley Day Leavitt will preach the baccalaureate sermon tomorrow morning and the vespers are to be conducted by Rev. J. Edgar Park.

Monday evening will be held the class night exercises and on Tuesday at 10:45, commencement—the address to be given by Dr. Samuel McCord Crothers.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The Great and General Court was prorogued a little after three o'clock last Saturday morning after one of the shortest sessions held in late years.

The mock session which has always been a feature of the closing hours was conspicuous by its absence. There was a little singing and some throwing of paper about but nothing of any consequence as the House was kept in session about all the afternoon and evening.

The greatest fight of the closing hours centered about the efforts of the cities of Holyoke and Westfield to obtain a modification of the award made some years ago by a judicial commission as to the percentage these cities should pay of the cost of the bridge now being constructed across the Connecticut river at Springfield. Last year a direct fight was made and lost on the award. This year the bill took the form of a new commission to take the matter up anew and pass the Senate by a good margin. The vote in the House late Friday afternoon was 102 in favor of the bill and 108 in opposition.

Immediate efforts were made by the friends of the bill to secure a recess with the intention to move to reconsider later in the evening but the opponents were alive to the situation and made the motion then and there.

Motions were made to postpone action, to take a recess and to adjourn but they were all defeated and the House then refused to reconsider and the matter was ended. It aroused considerable hard feeling however, and there were rumors of all sorts flying around in regard to the use of liquor for friends and foes alike, and one man who was considered as opposed to the Holyleoke plan was said to have been deliberately made drunk in order to prevent his voting on the bill. It will be a Godsend in more ways than one when the manufacture of the devilish stuff is prohibited once and for all.

A state tax of fourteen millions, the same as last year was authorized and a supplementary budget of nearly a million adopted as the 'last act' of the session.

At some later time I hope to be able to give the voters of Newton some idea of how their representatives voted on the various roll calls of the session, in general it can be said that they usually voted as a unit.

Four new bridges have been authorized to be constructed over the Charles river between Boston and Cambridge and Boston and Watertown, including a new bridge for the present unsafe bridge at Cottage Farm. I do not think Newton will object to paying its share of these bridges in the Metropolitan district and the County of Middlesex, a share with which Senator Nanhan and Representative Rice have had considerable to do.

JUNE CIRCUS

Certainly Dame Fortune favors the West Newton Day Nursery, for Thursday, Circus Day, was one long to be remembered.

The beautiful estate of Mrs. Herbert L. Felton on Chestnut street, West Newton, was filled with groups of children and their parents and friends. Colored balloons and artistically decorated booths added much to the gaiety of the occasion.

As one entered the grounds, he saw ponies with laughing children leisurely sauntering forth for a tour of the gardens and grounds.

Once within the grounds, it was hard to choose between attractions. Swings, slides, sand piles, and "grabs" appealed to the younger children, as did the goat and his master, Adams Carter, dressed as a clown.

For older ones, the Fortune Telling Tent, and the tintype photographer were attractions. The latter did a thriving business during the afternoon, groups of children being particularly popular.

Boys gravitated naturally towards the ring toss and shooting booths, while young and old sought the refreshment booths where candy, ice cream, lemonade, pop corn, etc., were sold.

Among the special features of the afternoon were the Punch and Judy Show, given by Miss Freeman twice during the afternoon, the Folk Dance (English) given by sixteen young people in middy blouses and white suits, a solo balloon dance by Kathleen Andrews, and the Girl Scout Maneuvres. Music for the dances was furnished by four boy violinists from the West Newton Music School. The bugle and drum corps led by Miss Caroline Freeman deserves special mention, and the balloon dance was very dainty and very well done.

Several groups enjoyed the tea on the terrace.

Other attractions were the Hurdy Gurdy Man, the push carts with their tempting wares, baskets of flowers, and Fortune Telling Parakeets.

A beautiful large doll was won by Agatha Pickhardt, a smaller doll and doll's trunk were won by Mrs. Delano Putnam of Boston, and a baseball by Carl Pickhardt.

Among those who assisted Mrs. Felton in making the occasion a success were Mrs. F. S. Sawyer, Mrs. George P. Hatch, Mrs. John A. Paine, Mrs. I. J. Fisher, Mrs. Clarence Whorf, Mrs. Andrew S. Woods, Mrs. Carl Pickhardt, Mrs. Swan Hartwell, Mrs. R. H. Gross, Mrs. Ernest S. Gile, Mrs. Allen Cook, Mrs. Robert E. Mandell, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Sweet, Miss Huntion of Patterson, N. J., Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Woods, Miss Peggy Glover, Miss Frances Ayres, Richard Rogers, Francis Rogers, Warren Rogers, and Charlotte Phelps.

The Besetting Sin

Failure to provide for the future out of the plenty of the present is the besetting American sin.

Hence more than half the old men in America are dependent on others for their bare necessities and a large proportion of them who die in middle age leave no support for their families.

Begin now to create a fund in this bank that will care for you in old age, or provide for the family after your death.

CITY HALL

Monday Evening, June 6, 1921, 7:45 P.M.

HEARING OF VITAL INTEREST TO ALL NEWTON PROPERTY OWNERS

Do you want one of Newton's most beautiful parks ruined by a large factory building?

Do you want factory buildings in the midst of residential sections?

Do you want the value of your home reduced because our city ordinances are such that a factory may be built near you for any purpose at any time?

Do you realize that a small garage cannot be erected without the approval of the Board of Aldermen, but a large factory infinitely more damaging to property rights may be?

Do you wish to do your part toward keeping this city one of the most beautiful in the country?

If you do not want such a building erected almost on Cabot Park, it is of the utmost importance that you attend the above meeting or send a representative.

There will be a Hurdy Gurdy Party tonight in Legion Hall under the auspices of the Newton Post, American Legion. The entertainment committee is in charge of the affair, William Greene, chairman. Dancing will start at 8 o'clock and last until midnight.

Mrs. Lydia E. Crafts, the wife of Mr. Henry W. Crafts of River street, died yesterday morning at the Mass. Homopathic Hospital in Boston, after a few weeks' illness. Mrs. Crafts was 79 years of age and has been a resident of this village for many years. She is survived by her husband. Funeral services will be held from her late home, 34 River street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

Quick work on the part of the fire department prevented a dangerous fire at the City Stables on Auburndale avenue, Friday night, after fire had broken out in one of the trucks used in laying tar on the streets. The machine was backed up in rear of the main building and about 10:30 the tar took flame from the small fire kept all night to keep the tar from hardening. When the firemen arrived the blaze had taken hold of the window casings on the barn and was rapidly eating into the interior.

Fire discovered shortly before noon yesterday, in the shingled roof of the residence of James M. W. Hall, at 95 Lake avenue, caused a loss estimated at $10,000. By quick, effective work the firemen confined the flames to the third floor and roof. The lower floors were damaged by water. Mr. Hall could not account for the origin of the blaze.

WANTED ONE THOUSAND PARTNERS BEFORE OCTOBER FIRST BY THE SAFEST BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

This business is more than thirty years old and has paid a dividend twice each year promptly when due.

The partners have no liability and cannot be called upon to pay an assessment of any sort. Every dollar of earnings, after paying expenses, and expenses are low, is divided among the partners or set aside for their protection. The word partner as used here is just another name for the depositor in a Mutual Savings Bank, because every depositor is a partner. There are no stockholders. Every penny belongs to the depositor-partners.

PARTNERS ARE WANTED

There are more than six thousand now.

COME AND BE A PARTNER

You may have an interest in the business to any extent, from one dollar to two thousand dollars.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Federation Meeting at Plymouth

That times have changed and that club women and Federation officials have taken a long stride forward was clearly demonstrated at the opening session of the annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at Plymouth last week. It hardly seems possible, but the fact remains that two addresses of welcome, the president's response, sixteen committee reports and a half-hour of music were satisfactorily put through in a session not over two hours and a half long on the opening evening. That in itself is a record of which to be proud, and one which should make men sit up and take notice! From the officers' reports were learned that 328 clubs now make up the Federation; that after expending some $6000 for carrying on the work of the Federation, the substantial balance of $1590.58 remains in the treasury. A short account of the Endowment Fund was presented, 75 clubs having made contributions. It stands today at $23,730.41, and there is every expectation that the full amount of $25,000 will be reached the coming year; in fact, it is probable that Mrs. Baker will see the fund completed before her term of service closes in 1922. Until it reaches that full amount, the income will be added to the principal. On this account it is exceedingly desirable that it be completed in the near future, for there are constantly widening opportunities of service opening to the Federation which cannot be undertaken until there is an added income from which to draw.

Falling in with the request from the General Federation, five new divisions of work have been started, Home Demonstration Work, under Mrs. Joseph S. Leach; Volunteer Service Bureau, under Mrs. Wallace P. Hood; Community Service, under Mrs. Carolyn Engler; Industrial and Business Relations, under Miss Mary C. Wiggin, and Institutional Relations, under Mrs. George T. Rice; these added to Americanization, under Mrs. Frederick G. Smith, and Thrift, under Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, make seven special divisions of work, in addition to the regular departments, which have existed for many years. A few gleamings from these reports may be of interest:

"Fifty-seven clubs are now doing Americanization work, eight of which are co-operating in their communities with supervisors of Americanization appointed by the state board of education. Nine have had foreign women of all classes as guests of their clubs and held exhibitions of their handiwork." For clubs not now doing Americanization work comes the recommendation:

"Study your community needs and the nationalities represented. Use tact in your method of approach. One mistake will sometimes take months to remedy. If there is no Americanization supervisor under your schools, try to arouse your school board to appoint the right kind, then co-operate. The most successful work has been done in co-operation with official workers."

"Extend the co-operation between the clubs and the home demonstration agents." "Make the Volunteer Service Bureau a part of the activities of peace as well as of the activities of war. Establish such a bureau in every community that there may be co-operation between club workers and trained workers. "Make 'Know your own Community' the slogan for next year."

From Mrs. Irving O. Palmer was this admonition:

"Many of the phases of thrift should be stressed by the respective standing committees, such as thrift in the home, thrift in health, in civic affairs, in education and in legislation. There is still, however, an important feature of thrift work which is not included under the head of any of our regular departments. Probably our nation's greatest economic need today is to develop an understanding of the value of money and its intelligent use.

"For this reason we suggested business days and classes, as the one new phase of our work the past year. It seems to be the distinct province of the thrift chairman to bring to her club a wider knowledge of the simple principles of handling and investing money, an acquaintance with banks, stocks, bonds and safe investments."

Miss Mary C. Wiggin urged the study of the general labor movement, its purposes, its politics and methods; to afford means of hearing the viewpoints of employers, employees and technicians dealing with man power. Miss Wiggin has been released by the Massachusetts Consumers' League, of which she is the executive secretary, for two days each week to conduct such classes, whereby she will be able to direct groups, preparing them to understand what they will see in visiting business establishments, arranging for such visits and discussing with them later the features noted in the visit. A film is available to aid these groups to prepare in quiet for the factory visit.

Wednesday's sessions were devoted to the annual reports of the departments of work.

Mrs. Katharine Thoré, chairman of Art, made this suggestive statement in her report:

"While there are war memorials unworthy of the noble dead, while there are lonely picture galleries and bare gray school rooms, while billboards rise in stark and vicious ugliness, there is need for art—to make a finer, lovelier America for today and tomorrow."

Mrs. A. H. Davison, chairman of Music, told of efforts put forth to bring more music into the lives of state prisoners and to "further legislation in Massachusetts for obliterating the awful text of the so-called popular songs. Owing to lack of funds the committee was unable to secure the services of a leader for community singing, for choral classes, orchestras and bands, who would come to instruct the prisoners, but it is hoped that there will be opportunity to try this scheme later."

"The prison commissioner," said the chairman, "feels sure that if we could show the powers that be on Beacon Hill what a good thing it would be for our prisoners to have this mental instruction, they would follow our lead and provide the necessary $1000 to pay a leader, after the first year."

The Mothercraft work, which has been so successfully launched in Massachusetts and has since been extended into other states, was reported by its founder, Miss May Bliss Dickinson.

"One of the most recent valuable extensions of the work has been through missionaries into other countries. Books and other material have been sent into several sections of China for the use of missionary nurses. When Dr. Macy of Mexico was in this country he came to Boston to obtain permission to have the text book, 'Children Well and Happy,' translated and published into Spanish to be used by classes of women and girls in Mexico."

Each department in turn in setting forth its work expressed the hope that the clubs would devote a day or even more to that special subject, until it would seem there would be no time left for anything else; but what is better for the clubs' treasures, a whole year's program might be obtained without drawing from them more than speakers' traveling expenses! There were, however, many very definite suggestions, which may well be taken into consideration by program committees, who are anxious to educate their club members beyond the point of wishing to be merely entertained. Not until then will the individual club women begin to realize the full significance of this mighty club movement.

Fifteen new clubs were presented, seven of whom were represented in person. The eight district directors told of visits to their clubs and of the conferences which have been held through the year. And the business of the day was over. Rain interfered to some extent in the full pleasure of the excursions planned by the hostess club, but a very large number of delegates visited the Plymouth Cordage Company's plant and saw the film which tells the story from start to finish, and then partook of a substantial supper in the plant's restaurant, returning to town in time to attend the evening session at the theatre, as well as the reception at the Samoset.

A half-hour of music by Clark's orchestra preceded the lecture by Sir Paul Dukes, "Secret Service in Red Russia," which was full of interest, but not so full of thrills as his audience had anticipated. He stated that there never will be peace in the world until conditions in Russia are settled. The whole mass of peasantry is playing a waiting game, and nobody believes that the Reds are going to last in power forever. The peasants on the farms have enough to eat, but in the cities food is very scarce and hard to get, and consequently very high-priced.

The Thursday morning came the final business session, when an amendment was passed according to past presidents' full delegate privileges, just as are enjoyed by all present members of the board. The scholarship of $100 in memory of Mrs. Leila C. Pennock, which was voted last year at the American International College at Springfield, was made a permanent thing. Mrs. Lena R. Wellington was elected trustee of the Endowment Fund. The report on the Bed in the Children's Hospital showed that $300 more than was needed for one bed had been contributed, and it was voted that this balance be held by the Public Health committee with the hope that further clubs would make contributions during the coming year and a second bed be endowed.

A resolution from the legislative department urging the clubs to hold a legislative day previous to the Federation's mid-winter meeting, when the bills selected by the department should be discussed from both sides, so that delegates may go to that meeting thoroughly informed upon them, was passed, after having been expunged so far as pledged delegates were concerned. A resolution from the General Federation urging the creation of an intelligent public opinion regarding the care and training of delinquent girls was also passed; the convention went on record as opposed to the Walsh bill, ordering a telegram to be sent our Senators to that effect. A telegram of thanks to Governor Cox for signing the Moving Picture Censorship bill was also voted. The courtesy resolutions being then out of the way, the convention adjourned. Many delegates left town during the forenoon, and by 3:45, when the official train departed, all traces of the big convention were obliterated. The Plymouth meeting was a thing of the past and a successful year's work over.

For this reason we suggested business days and classes, as the one new phase of our work the past year. It seems to be the distinct province of the thrift chairman to bring to her club a wider knowledge of the simple principles of handling and investing money, an acquaintance with banks, stocks, bonds and safe investments."

SKINNER - LEETE

Miss Abigail Elizabeth Leete, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William W. Leete of Madison avenue, Newtonville, and Mr. Sherrod Emerson Skinner of New Britain, Conn., were married on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy, Kirkstall road, Newtonville. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Leete, assisted by Rev. M. H. Lichliter of Central Church.

Miss Eleanor Leete, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Howard Bruemmer of New Britain best man. Two chains of white flowers held by Elizabeth Field, niece of the bride, Donald Root, nephew of the groom, and Frances and Russell Eddy, formed an aisle.

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with Duchesse and rose point lace, her veil being fastened with a head band of Rosepoint lace caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor was dressed in blue organdie, with gold slippers, and carried an armful of yellow daisies.

Rev. and Mrs. William White Leete and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Skinner assisted the bride and groom at the reception which followed the ceremony. The house was tastefully decorated with palms and ferns, peonies and mountain laurel. Music was furnished by Miss Lillian West, piano, Mrs. Walker, cello, and Mrs. Hastings, violin.

After the wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will live in New Britain, Conn.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke, class of 1920, and the groom is a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

DEATH OF MRS. RICE

Mrs. Mary Paul Rice, the widow of the late Marshall O. Rice, died on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rebecca R. Barker at Dayton, O. Mrs. Rice, who was 84 years of age, had been ill for about a year.

Mrs. Rice was the daughter of Luther Paul and was born in Newton Centre on January 15, 1837. She married Mr. Rice on September 11, 1867, and until recently has always made her home in this city.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Barker of Dayton, O., one son, Mr. William H. Rice of Newton Centre, and a stepson, Mr. George M. Rice of Chadron, Neb.

Funeral services were held in the chapel of the First Church, Newton Centre yesterday afternoon, Rev. Edward M. Noyes, pastor of the church officiating. There was music by the Shubert quartet. The burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

UNION BAZAAR

A Union Bazaar for the benefit of the following societies is to be held sometime in November: The Woman's Auxiliary, Y. M. C. A., Women's Association, Elliot Church, Chamber of Commerce, Immigrant Woman's Association, Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Grace Church Service League, and the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the North Church.

The Bazaar will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building, proceeds to be divided between the seven societies.

It is earnestly hoped that by working together a spirit of neighborly co-operation will be promoted among the members of the different societies and their friends to the great benefit of all.

The chairman of the Bazaar is Mrs. H. P. Fuller, and the Sub-Chairman, Mrs. John F. Lodge and Mrs. Samuel Bridges.

RECITAL OF PUPILS OF MISS FLORENCE E. WALSH

Proposals must be plainly marked on envelope "Proposal for Coal."

Proposals are invited for the whole supply required by said Department or the supply required by it in one or more weeks of said City from July 1, 1921, to July 1, 1922.

All proposals must be upon blank forms furnished by said Department, and must be accompanied by a certified check upon a national bank or trust company doing business in Massachusetts, for the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the proposal which it accompanies is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to execute the contract within six days (Sundays excepted) from the date of notification of acceptance of proposal.

Specifications and forms of contract can be obtained at the office of the School Committee, Technical High School, Newtonville, Mass.

Any alteration or addition to the terms of the specifications and form of contract may be considered by the City as a cause for rejection of the bidder's proposal.

The Department reserves the right to accept or reject any and all bids or any part of any bid.

Monday, May 23, the Boy's Debating Club held its last meeting. Candidates for the coming year were nominated; for president, Alfred Stafford, Edwin Loughrey, and Burr Richards; Stafford was elected; for vice-president, Henry Whitmore; Robert Spencer; Spencer was elected; for secretary, Robert Brown, Dwight Noble, and Collett, Brown was elected; for treasurer, Donald Martin, David Hill, and Clarence McDavid; McDavid was elected.

NEW COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The vital necessity for the future good of our country of sound and thorough training in religious and moral character has been deeply impressed upon all, because of the stress placed upon such training by many leaders of thought. The fact that the responsibility for such training, under our system and principles of government, rests jointly upon Home and Church, is realized better now than in recent years.

The thousand or more teachers and officers in the Protestant Sunday Schools of the Norumbega District realize their responsibility for their part in this dual work. Up to the present time, however, no adequate provision has been made whereby these volunteer workers may have the opportunity to secure the special training which they would like, and for which they would be willing to give their time.

Realizing, as the people of this community now do, that no one church working alone can provide the same high quality of training that all working together can furnish, they have decided to establish the Norumbega Community School of Religious Education. A fine spirit of co-operation prevails, every Protestant denomination and every locality in the District being represented on the committee in charge.

Most of the details are already decided. The School will be held in the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville, on Monday evenings, beginning October 10th next. There will be two sessions each evening for 24 weeks, so that each student may elect two courses. A complete course of study, for which diploma will be awarded covers three years.

Announcement of Director and faculty, whose selection is in the hands of a special committee headed by Nathan Heard, Esq., will be made shortly. The teachers will all be the equals in their respective fields of the teachers in a State Normal School. Courses of study will be offered, adapted to the needs of teachers, officers, pastors and parents.

The expense of providing such a school of high grade is small, compared with the results to be obtained. It is estimated that about $2500 per year will maintain such a school of the fine quality which Newton requires. A part of this will come from a small tuition fee from those attending. But as these are the very ones who are giving so freely of their time and strength in teaching the boys and girls of the community, it is believed that individuals and churches will be glad to finance the School and other important work of the District Association. Mr. Wm. T. Rich of Newton is chairman of the Finance Committee.

The entire Norumbega District Sunday School Association, which embraces not only all the Newtons, but also Waltham, Watertown, Belmont, Waverley and Weston, unite in this school in spite of the difficulties of transportation for many.

How Thor Weston, Jr. of West Newton, is chairman of the general committee. The names of the Newton city members are given below. These in themselves are evidence of the importance attached to this movement and of the belief that great work uniting on essentials is possible and is to be.

Names follow:— Hon. John L. Bates, Prof. J. P. Berkeley, Mr. W. C. Boyden, Prof. E. S. Brightman, Rev. G. S. Butters, Prof. R. B. Carter, Hon. E. O. Chidls, Mrs. E. B. Church, Mr. A. A. Cole, Miss L. NEWTON CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Adams has made the following announcements; graduation will be held on Saturday afternoon, June 18, at 2:30 P.M. Every senior will have a final examination in each subject and these tests are to be over by June 7. The regular senior work ends on Tuesday, June 14, at 2:30. On the two following days there will be a rehearsal of the graduation exercises at 8:30. Every senior, unless ill, must be present. Wednesday, June 15, is the final day for the other classes. On the next day the examinations begin and they will be continued on the Monday of the following week (the 17th of June this year being a school holiday). The senior class party will be held on the night of graduation at Stimpson's estate in Chestnut Hill.

The "Review" dance proved to be a financial success, so that the $2 page June issue is being edited and set up.

Monday, May 23, the Boy's Debating Club held its last meeting. CHESTNUT HILL HORSE SHOW

The 18th annual Chestnut Hill open air horse show on the grounds of the Longwood Cricket Club on Middlesex road, Chestnut Hill, last Monday, attracted a large audience and many fine horses were on exhibition.

Newton exhibitors were numerous in all classes and were awarded many ribbons. Among the winners were Mrs. F. B. Hopewell of Newton with Haughty and Radiant Nipper, taking first place in the harness tandem class, her Sunbeam winning second in the saddler class with riders under 18, and the same horse winning second in the Combination horse class.

Miss Alice Stuart of Chestnut Hill won the blue ribbon with Tu Tu in the saddle pony class, and third with the same horse in the combination pony class. Her gelding, Granville, was second in the children's saddle pony class, and second in the children's driving pony class, while Our Bit won the blue in both the saddle horse class and the saddlers with drivers under 18.

E. S. Webster, Jr., with Decoration won the blue in the open, any weight jumping class after a close contest and his Senator won fourth place in the same event. Decoration was also awarded the blue in the heavy weight hunter class.

E. P. Saltonstall, Jr., with Beauty won third place in the class for children's driving ponies, and Miss Lorraine Liggett, with Frederick, won fourth place.

Miss Alice Bemis' Gypsy won fourth place in the saddle pony class.

Miss Janice Liggett with Trowbridge Queen won the blue in the runabout class and Miss Lorraine Liggett, with Play Boy, won the blue for children's saddle ponies.

An interesting incident of the day was little Miss Mary Stuart of Chestnut Hill, five years of age, probably the youngest exhibitor at any horse show. She was awarded a blue ribbon in one of the pony classes.

SIMMS—BUCKLEY

Miss Evelyn Mary Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Buckley of Crescent street, Newton, and Mr. Albert Reginald Simms of Watertown, were married on Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Buckley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Simms, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Page Evans, and Mr. Barrie Collins of Watertown.

The bride wore a gown of chantilly lace over white satin, with a veil of white tulle trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore changeable orchid taffeta with a hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the hall of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Watertown, the bride and groom being assisted by their parents.

The brother of the bride, Mr. William A. Buckley, came from California to the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of the High School of Our Lady, and the groom is a graduate of Harvard College, class of 1914. He served as ensign in the late war, and is to tour Europe with the Simms.

ELIOT CHURCH WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The last meeting of the Eliot Women's Association was held at Eliot Church on Tuesday, Mrs. Willard Sampson in charge.

Mrs. Irving O. Palmer gave a very instructive and interesting talk on the Sea Islands off of the coast of the Carolinas, and their inhabitants.

She stated that although eight tenths of the population are colored the relation between the colored people and their white neighbors is a very beautiful one.

She told touching tales of the old "mammies" and their interest in and care of their charges, and of the devotion of former slaves and their families to the families of their former masters.

The speaker also dwelt upon the wealth of music to be found among these old-time darkies, and illustrated by singing some of the songs bringing out their peculiar rhythm.

Oddities of dialect and of thought were also illustrated by the sermon of the "Prodigal Son" and others in which various quotations of Scripture followed one another in strange sequence.

Mrs. Palmer was ably assisted by Mrs. Arthur Flinn who sang some of the most interesting and characteristic of the darky melodies.

As this was Mothers' and Daughters' Day, a large number of visitors from other churches as well as those from Eliot Church had the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Palmer.

C. F. EDY CO. A WINNER

More than one thousand horses took part in the parade of the Boston Work-Horse Relief Association on Memorial day in what is considered one of the most successful in its history.

It will be of local interest to note that C. F. Eddy Co. won nine blue ribbons on that occasion. They had three entries in the Championship Class, single, Heavy Horses. A beautiful roan horse weighing 1900 lbs, 5th year in the parade, driver, William Fitzsimmons; a bay horse 5th year in the parade, driver, James Spikes; a roan, 10th year in the parade, driven by Frank Bemis. The first named, won the Championship as he did in the same class last year.

In the coal class there were three double teams of this firm all of which won Blue Ribbons. A pair of Greys won their 8th year in the parade driven by Thomas Morrissey, a pair of Bays their 3rd year in the parade driven by Peter Merideth, and a beautiful pair of Blacks driven by Patrick Welch.

The Simmons Garden Fete on Harriman Estate attracts 2000 Persons

The beautiful estate of Mr. Henry L. Harriman, Centre street, Newton, was the scene last Saturday afternoon and evening of one of the largest and most elaborate fetes that Newton has ever seen. The festivities were given for the benefit of the Simmons College Endowment Fund.

The house itself resembles an old English manor house with its terrace, and well-kept lawn. From the rear of the house extends in parallel lines, a double row of poplar trees leading the eye to the pergola at the end. The rectangular space between these was flanked by booths of every description decorated in Simmons College colors.

A part of the front lawn under the apple tree was devoted to children. Here games were played under the supervision of Mrs. Collett, while Miss Emilie Pousson, author and educator held a group of children spell-bound with her stories.

In the basement playground, another group enjoyed the Marionettes, loaned for the occasion, by Madame Achard School. These gave an adaptation of Anatole France's "Honey Bee." This romantic tale of the middle ages was exquisitely costumed and staged, producing an illusion which was quite remarkable.

Throughout the afternoon there were continuous performances consisting of pony rides, goat rides, numenologist, hurdy gurdy and monkey, see saw, toy roller coaster, silhouette cutter and clown performances.

BOY SCOUT RALLY

Interesting Program to be Given Saturday Afternoon in Claflin Field

Meanwhile bridge was being played within doors, the tables being decorated in Simmons colors, and the winning lady at each table receiving a fern.

Each attraction was announced from the West Terrace by three buglers, members of the Girl Scouts who are considered the best in New England.

They were Elizabeth Plimpton, Marion Maxim and Geraldine Longwell.

The special attractions of the afternoon were the dog and horse shows. The former was under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Jeffrey of Cochituate. The dogs were exhibited to the admiring spectators simultaneously in two rings, the smaller ones in one ring, and the larger ones in the other. A pair of tiny Pekingese puppies were favorites with the children. The judges were George West, Airedales and Whippets; Thomas Hunter, Jr., Boston Terriers; Carl J. Voight, Collies; Mrs. A. B. Carmichael, All Toys; William H. Young, French Bulldogs; and George Thomas, Unclassified Specials.

Edwin Kaufman's French bull, Pounce Peter, judged the best dog in the show.

Open Collie Show—Won by Miss Grace Taylor's Laddit Singular.

Open Pekingese—Won by Miss Edith Jameson's Tu Tung.

American Bred Pekingeses—Won by William Clapp's Har-Hi-Zay-Zo.

Pomeranians—Won by R. H. Currie's Hamilton Boy.

ENJOYABLE MEETING

Annual Meeting of Newtonville Improvement Society is Unusual

The annual spring rally of the Boy Scouts will be held on Claflin Field, Newtonville, this Saturday afternoon, June 11, at 2.30. The Mayor and other city officials will be present and large numbers of citizens are expected to be there.

Since the beginning of the year the scout movement in the city of Newton has become very active, and to date there are about 400 scouts, live wires, in the Norumbega Council. Saturday afternoon these boys will enter competitive races in scout-craft, and according to indications there will be lots of the real scouting spirit and plenty of enthusiasm.

Following is the program:

- Review and Inspection — commencing sharp at 2.30. By His Honor the Mayor and city officials along with local scout officials and visiting officials.
- Scout-craft Competitions.

1. Friction fire (making fire without the use of matches). Very interesting and requiring great skill to perform.

2. Semaphore Signaling.

Sending messages and receiving messages. A fine exhibition of the training in co-ordination of thought and vision.

3. Water-boiling Race.

Each scout builds a fire and boils soapy water. Care and quickness along with judgment is required. This is not as easy as it looks.

4. Knot-tying Race.

To be able to tie knots at a moment's notice is not to be laughed at. Come and see the boys do it.

5. First Aid.

An event which requires technical knowledge of First Aid to the injured. Six boys from each troop will participate.

6. Antelope Race.

Practise is essential. An amusing event and well worth seeing.

7. Signaling (Morse code).

The same as Event 8, but using a different code and flags.

8. Bugling.

9. Equipment Race.

Plenty of fun, but an event which requires quickness of action.

10. Tent-pitching contest.

All who anticipate camping this summer should see this. Nothing slow about the scouts in tent-pitching.

DOUBLE SESSION

Long Aldermanic Hearings on Monday Evening Require Extra Meeting on Tuesday

While in times past the board of aldermen have held many long and interesting hearings, it is the opinion of the writer that the session on Monday evening established a new record. It was certainly the first time in the history of the city that the board adjourned immediately at the conclusion of the last hearing and transacted no business, meeting the next night to finish its docket.

President Cabot in opening the meeting outlined briefly the work of the Executive Committee which during the year had interested itself in a variety of activities looking to the betterment of the community. He called attention to a healthy increase in membership, which is open to every citizen of Newtonville.

President Cabot in opening the meeting stated that the matter had been heard at length at a previous special meeting of the board and the present hearings ordered at that time. Alderman Nichols, who had been designated as a committee to get in touch with the situation made a long and interesting report, which in substance stated that the remonstrants had refused to take any action for themselves, evidently as Mr. Nichols said, under a misapprehension of the facts, while the Security Mills officers were willing to co-operate and at present were acting strictly within their rights in proceeding to erect the factory.

Ex-Alderman Harry D. Cabot, president of the Newtonville Improvement Association, also favored the taking. Mr. H. H. Ballard, Jr., told of the successful efforts of residents in the vicinity of Mt. Vernon St., Newtonville, to prevent a wood-working concern from locating there. Messrs. James S. Cannon, Stephen B. Hughes, George B. H. Macomber, and Ex-Alderman Charles E. Riley all favored a taking by the city. Mr. Leon Rubenstein for the Security Mills then stated the position of his company in the matter in such a conciliatory manner as to arouse considerable sympathy for his cause.

Previous to this hearing there were several others which also attracted some interest.

A GREAT SUCCESS

Setter classes was Walter McCammon's Shepherd dog, Nancy of Hohenzollern.

The horse show at the south western end of the grounds was a beautiful sight. The classes were as follows: Children's Combination Class; Pony Jumpers 14-2 and under; Saddle Horses under 15-2; Saddle Horses over 15-2; Light Weight Hunters.

The committee in charge consisted of Miss Janice Liggett, chairman, Miss Gertrude Bradlee, Miss Andrea Adie, Mr. Elmer Bliss, Miss Dorothy Forbes, Mrs. F. B. Hopewell, Mr. George S. West, Mr. E. S. Webster, Jr., Mr. G. H. D. Lamson. Some of the best horses in this part of the country were exhibited.

Awards were made as follows:

Class A, Combination Ponies—Won by Mrs. F. B. Hopewell's Sunbeam; second, Miss Lorraine Liggett's Playboy; third, Weld Farm's The Imp; fourth, Miss Lorraine Liggett's Fredrick.

Class B, Jumping Ponies—Won by Miss Janice Liggett's Ben Bolt; 2nd, Miss Lorraine Liggett's Playboy; third, G. D. H. Lampson's Bay Boy; fourth, Miss Janice Liggett's Johnny Walker.

Class C, Saddle Horses. Under 15.2 Hands—Won by Mrs. F. B. Hopewell's Sunbeam; second, Mrs. G. Bradlee's Marcus; third, Miss Andrea Adie's Sandy; fourth, Weld Farm's Killarny.

Class D, Saddle Horses over 15.2 Hands—Won by Miss Andrea Adie's Merryheart; second, Miss Alice Stuart's Our Bit; third, Mrs. H. James' Masterpiece; fourth, Edwin S. Webster Jr.'s Senator.

Class E, Lightweight Hunters—Won by Miss Lorraine Liggett's Playboy; second, Edwin S. Webster Jr.'s Third Mate; third, E. J. Bliss' Twilight; fourth, Miss Muriel Bliss' Flashlight.

The tennis tournament played by Miss Marion Zinderstein, Mrs. Frank Godfrey, Mrs. Benjamin Cole and Mrs. George Wightman had its own devotees. Mrs. Cole and Miss Zinderstein won 2 sets, score 6-1, 6-5.

In another part of the grounds on the border of a pond, Miss Jane Solov of Simmons College gave several attractive dances which were followed by group dances the music for which was furnished by the Simmons College Mandolin Club. Among the most attractive of the dances was the "Ocean at Sunrise" the dancers being clothed in orange-red drapery with pale blue scarfs. The soft coloring of the trees overlooking the water, together with the lights and shadows cast by the afternoon sun made the total effect like a Corot painting. Other dances were "Playmates" a Trio Waltz and a May Pole Dance, all three charming.

At five o'clock the centre of attraction was the terrace where tea was served. Following the tea, Miss Hazel Sands of Newton Centre gave three feature dances on the west lawn. The first of these was an interpretation of Kreisler's "Caprice," the second, dance suggestive of the life of the Harem, and the third, a Greek dance embodying the joy of living. Miss Sands' dances were marked by delicacy and grace with a touch of the dramatic in the second dance.

The special feature of the evening was the dancing by the pupils of Mrs. Lilla Viles Wyman. In their wonderfully artistic costumes, with different colored lights upon them, the dancers seemed a part of fairytale. The Simmons College Mandolin Club also gave an excellent concert.

Social dancing on the west lawn concluded the program. More than 2,000 people attended the fete, and a large sum of money was realized for the benefit of the Simmons College Fund.

After Miss Sands' interpretative dancing, the Simmons Sandwich Wagon was announced, and supper on paper plates consisting of salad sandwiches, and doughnuts was served as long as it lasted. Provision was made for 200, but the supplies gave out long before the hungry throng was appeased.

The Garden Fete not only accomplished its main object—to give everyone a good time, but more than met the expectations of the hardworking committee of enthusiastic Newton Simmons College Alumnae who arranged the day's attractions; for after all the bills were paid, there was over $2,300 left for the Simmons College Endowment Fund.

The executive committee consisted of Mrs. Stafford Johnson, General Chairman; Mrs. E. D. Van Tassel, Jr., Entertainment, Mrs. Eunice Clark, Booths and Sales; Miss Elsie M. Kellaway, Publicity; and Miss Katharine Sprague, Treasurer.

DOUBLE SESSION

vored by Mr. Gould for the Company. No one appeared at hearings on Edison and Telephone poles on Court street, on proposed relocation of tracks by the Middlesex & Boston Co. on Washington street from Newton to West Newton, on petition of Frank Cavareto to sell gasoline on Elm street and on altering the lines of Ash and Melrose streets.

Newton Centre residents were somewhat aroused over the petition of Philip Gilesman to erect an automobile service station on Irving st. Mr. Gilesman and Mr. George F. Wales appeared in favor and Messrs. Edward Keating, Wm. L. Pullen, T. A. Carlson and Jos. P. Barry remonstrated.

Mr. William H. Mague appeared in favor of his petition to use his remodelled stable on Chestnut street as a public garage. A written protest was filed by W. W. Trowbridge and others and Buildings Commissioner Forbush stated that he had not issued a permit for this building to be used as a garage.

There was another long hearing on the proposed revocation of permit held by John Atkinson to keep and sell gasoline at the corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue. Mr. Atkinson's attorney stated some $10,000 to $12,000 had just been invested in this gasoline-filling station under a renewal of a permit originally granted to William A. Sweat and transferred to Mr. Atkinson and renewed by Mr. Stinson, and which had now been transferred to a Mr. Conant who was running the plant.

As it was nearly 11 o'clock when these hearings closed the board adjourned until Tuesday night for its regular business.

The Tuesday Meeting

Every member was present at the meeting on Tuesday night. The first matter on the docket was the veto of the Mayor of the permit recently granted the Jenney Mfg. Co. to locate gasoline filling station at the corner of Beacon and Walnut streets. The veto gave these reasons—

1st. There is no need for a filling station in this particular locality inasmuch as one is already established only a very short distance to the west of the proposed location.

2nd. The proposed location is at one of the most dangerous corners in the city.

3rd. The residents in that vicinity are opposed to the proposition.

I shall be glad to cooperate with your Honorable board in any move which may be made toward street widening in that locality and the elimination of conditions which have caused many accidents and many more narrow escapes.

With filling stations only a short distance from this dangerous junction in every direction, public necessity does not require a filling station at this point. The safety of travellers upon our highways is more important than private interests.

Alderman Rogers said that from police reports he found that 450 cars had passed this point between 3 and 4 P.M. the previous Sunday while 1200 cars had passed at the corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue at the same time. He did not believe there would be added danger if this station was located as granted by the board. Alderman Melcher said that both Improvement societies of Newton Centre and Newton Highlands approved the location. Alderman Carter said that the Planning Board were unanimous in favor. Alderman McAuslan also favored the permit. Alderman Blake opposed the location and supported the veto. The permit then failed to pass over the veto, by a vote of 12 to 18, as a two thirds' vote was necessary. Aldermen Ball, Blake, Cook, Heathcote, Hickey, Madden, Ross and Young supported the veto.

The mayor also vetoed that part of a recent order for $12,000 for furnishing the new school house at Waban as he believed the most shoul'd be raised by a bond issue rather than a direct charge to the tax levy. His position was sustained by a vote of 18 to 2, Alderman Cook and Pratt, and later the board passed a bond issue of $12,000 for this purpose.

The mayor's recommendations for $500 for replacements caused by fire at the Auburndale fire station, for $500 for maintenance of a rifle range for Co. H, and for change in ordinance regulating purchase of postage were approved.

He also recommended $200 for architect for changes wanted in the Mason school, $150 for use of Board of Appeal, $50 for plans for removal of old Roger Wolcott school building at Waban, $500 for grading about the Angier school, $453.30 for pension of John F. Calden of the Fire Dept., for work by State director of Accounts on Comptroller's books, and for opening of north side of Commonwealth avenue for use of automobiles.

Two important communications were received, one from the Planning Board submitting a proposed zoning ordinance and one from the Supt. of Schools submitting the recent report of Dr. J. H. Van Sickle on a survey of the Newton Schools. Alderman Nichols stated that the committee in charge of the latter would make a report at the next meeting and the Van Sickle report was tabled.

Alderman Nichols had the request of Wm. H. Rand for an auctioneer license, Newton Highlands Garage and George E. Rivers for truck licenses, Angelo Tucceri for a virtual license, 1209 Chestnut street, Ernest Saras for a virtual license at 267 Washington street, George C. Weed for 2nd class auto dealers' license, and Douglas E. Foster, Islington road, Thos. Halpin, 204 California street and F. L. Reed, Beaumont avenue for private garages were granted.

Petitions were also received from Zaida M. Chamberlin, 156 Waltham street, Giuseppe Cavallo, 58 Oak avenue, Margaret A. Mahoney, 18 Prospect street, for virtual licenses, T. Frank Willey for 3rd class liquor license at 32 Lincoln street, Reuben Forknall for an auctioneer license, C. C. Brown, Alerton road, G. H. Noone, Nobscot road,

George W. Harvey, 882 Commonwealth avenue, J. F. Suckling, 676 Centre street, P. W. Ryan, Harvard street, for private garages, for the laying out of Ashton and Kenwood avenues, and Berwick road, for sewers in Commonwealth avenue, Adams avenue, Phillips lane, and Frederick street, for abatement of betterments on Algonquin and Charlesbank roads, Giuseppe Castagnino and Joseph B. Lovely for soldiers' relief, for improvement of drainage of Watertown street, for street sprinkling on Islington road, for an Edison pole on Cabot street, from the Newton Federation of Women's Club for abolition of gunning in Newton, for bird protection in Newton and for abatement of sewer assessment on Cabot street.

The Board of Health recommended a sewer in Frederick street.

On recommendation of committees Licenses were granted to Andrew Mazzone, 977 Chestnut street and Peter Durant, Bridge street as common victuallers, Peter Durant for pool tables, Bridge street, Auburndale Club for bowling alleys and pool tables, J. E. Sherman Co. for transfer of auto dealers' license, from Ballard street to Needham street, Warwick road and Rossmere road were laid out with building lines at a cost of $18,764, curbing ordered on Chapel street to cost $2321.91, sidewalks ordered on Brookside avenue, $330 voted for a new box stall at Willow street stable, sewers ordered in Morton street, Morton road, Victoria circle and Royce road, and hearings assigned on the laying out of Gammons road, Byfield road and Ashton and Kenwood avenues.

Leave to withdraw was voted on petitions of Tito Passarin, 1005 Chestnut street and Ernest Saras, 267 Washington street for common victualler licenses, on the laying out of Ashton road and Ricker terrace and on petition for sewer abatement on Nevada street.

It was deemed inexpedient to sell land of city on Adella avenue to Carl T. Whittemore.

There was quite a debate on the adverse report of the Finance committee on granting 3 weeks' vacation to City Hall employees, and Alderman Blake succeeded in having the board by a vote of 12 to 9 substitute an ordinance allowing this privilege. The matter was favored by Aldermen Blake, Young and Ross and opposed by Alderman Nichols. After substitution there was another discussion over the form of the ordinance, Alderman Heathcote opposing the matter and Aldermen Lloyd, Whidden and President Harriman speaking in favor. The matter was finally sent to a committee for revision.

The various orders relative to providing sewerage for the Avalon road district in Waban carrying an appropriation of $14,836 were explained by Alderman Nichols. This matter has been pending for some two years and has finally been settled by the construction of a sewer pumping plant which will serve this district and half the cost of which will be assessed on the district as a public improvement.

President Harriman then took the floor to present a resolution authorizing him to send the following letter to the Mayor:

My dear Mr. Mayor:

I am instructed by a resolution of the Board of Aldermen to convey to you in this letter their views upon certain financial matters affecting the City of Newton. When your draft of the annual budget was presented to the Board, the Street Commissioner explained that the various estimates for city work were based upon a continuance of the 1920 wage schedule. The Board felt that, in justice to the taxpayers of the City, and because of the economic situation of the entire country, there should be a reasonable liquidation of city wages, such liquidation being necessary in all lines of work, in order that conditions may be stabilized and productive activities placed upon a sound economic basis.

Accordingly, various items in the budget were reduced by an amount which it was estimated would call for a reduction of from 10 per cent to 15 per cent in the pay of labor in the employ of the city. The present pay to city laborers is 53 cents per hour, but to this must be added approximately 5 cents per hour to cover the pay received for Saturday half-holiday during part of the year, regular holidays, etc., thus the wage received by the city laborer for his actual working time is 58 cents per hour, as compared to a going wage of from 35 cents to 40 cents per hour for the same class of labor in the employ of private contractors. If mechanics and other higher paid labor are included, the average net pay of city labor is 61 cents per hour. There are now employed by the City over 250 laborers and the annual payroll exceeds $400,000, and a cut of 10 per cent or 15 per cent means a very substantial saving to the City.

The Board is informed by the Street Commissioner that, although the reduced budget was passed some months ago, no change has been made in the labor rate. The Board is further informed that certain departments have already expended such a sum of money that it is clearly evident their work cannot be completed on the present appropriation, if the present wage scale is to continue. The Board may, therefore, be placed in the position of either making additional appropriations—thus increasing the burdens upon the taxpayers of Newton—or refusing to make such appropriations—thus stopping work upon much needed projects.

It is recognized that the City Charter places upon you as Mayor the authority to determine the wage scale; but it is also apparent that upon the Board's shoulders rests the final responsibility for appropriations; and thus there is a co-ordination of responsibility for city expenditures. Accordingly, the Board suggests that you execute order a reasonable change be made, in the rate of pay for city labor. In practically every line of private industry, wages have already fallen with general prices of commodities. The same is true as to public utilities, the recent announcement of the Railroad Wage Board being most significant; and this Board knows of no just rule which would exempt municipal labor from the operation of economic laws or impose upon city authorities any rule of action which is at variance with principles of sound business and economic policy.

Justice to all would dictate a reasonable but not radical cut in the municipal labor employed by the City of Newton.

The resolution was then adopted with about two or three voices in the negative.

The board then went into the committee of the whole to discuss the Security Mills situation and on returning to open session referred the matter to

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Lasell

Sunny skies and altogether delightful weather marked the closing days of Lasell and made possible the carrying out of some delightful innovations, for with the exception of the very formal events the exercises were held in a high tent on the lawn.

On Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. Winslow tendered the Seniors and their guests a reception at Woodland Park.

Dr. Ashly Day Leavitt delivered the baccalaureate sermon before a large audience in the Congregational Church on Sunday and Rev. J. Edgar Park had charge of the vespers.

More than 700 people attended the class night exercises on Monday night. The beautiful torch-light procession wending its way along the paths of the campus, the daisy chain carried by the Seniors, the "flames" made the occasion one of peculiar charm.

The exercises were opened by "a word of welcome" given by the class president, Miss Dorothy S. Howe. The original manner in which Miss Gladys Lucas called the roll caused much laughter. Miss Ruth Ordway very beautifully expressed in verse the class ideals of service. An Eastern seer then appeared and Miss Ruth Rawlings by her form of magic read in a crystal globe the prophecy. Miss Helen Couger presented the mementos and in behalf of the class gave to Dr. Winslow for the school a check of $250.00 with the warm esteem of the class of 1921. The same to be used as a nucleus for an endowment fund. Miss Lilian Doane gave the farewell. At the close of the exercises, the Seniors, carrying the daisy chain and accompanied by the Juniors as the torch bearers, proceeded to the main building, Bradon Hall, where they sang their farewell song and Miss Viola Sullivan gave the farewell speech. The farewell to Gardner was given by Miss Marion Bodwell and Miss Mary Hobo to Carpenter.

After consigning to the flames the things that had troubled them during the year, the evening was brought to a close by the Seniors forming a circle, singing a toast and passing the loving cup.

The very much prized gold loaf which the school has given for more than 30 years, to the girl who makes the best loaf of bread, went this year to Miss Doris Sanborn of Lowell, Mass. Another Lowell girl, Miss Doris Brown, carrying off the silver loaf, the second prize.

These awards, with many others and with certificates in the secretarial course, home economics, music and art, were given by Dr. Winslow on Tuesday morning at the close of the last chapel exercises.

This year's scholarship winners were Miss Ruth Ordway of Jamaica Plain and Marion Bodwell of Sanford, Me.

To the three girls qualifying the best as all-around girl, which entailed good standing in studies, be fine in athletics, good influences, be democratic and thoughtful, be a good mixer, good winner and better loser, have no habit of breaking rules, neat in personal appearance and tidiness of room—for two years sweaters have been given. This year they were awarded to Miss Dorothy Shove, Marshalltown, Iowa, and Miss Ruth Rawlings, El Paso, Texas, two seniors, and Miss Varsi Craner of South Bend, Ind.

As in years past, through the courtesy of the trustees of the Congregational Church, the graduation exercises were held in that building on Tuesday morning at 10:30, when a splendid address was given by Dr. Samuel McChord Crothers.

At two o'clock came the reunion of the alumnae and old girls. Among the many girls who "came home" was one from the class of '57—and many others were present from the classes of the early days. At the close of the business meeting Miss Packard interestingly told of her trip to California. While there and on the way she visited a number of Lasell girls and was the guest of honor at five Lasell reunions.

MR. GAW SUCCOCATED

John Gaw, one of the oldest residents of West Newton, died Saturday night from apoplexy. Mr. Gaw was caretaker of the estate of Geo. R. Whitten, of 279 Chestnut street, West Newton. Mr. Whitten and family are at present traveling in Europe and their residence is occupied by Mr. Glidden and family.

Saturday evening when Mr. Gaw was making his inspection of the premises it is evident he discovered a fire smoldering in the storage room in the basement and attempted to extinguish it without alarming the occupants of the house. It was some time later when smoke was discovered coming from the basement and on arrival of the fire apparatus it was impossible to enter the basement owing to the density of the smoke. When the firemen were able to enter the basement the body of Mr. Gaw was found. Near by was a pail and the water in the sink was running, which showed that he had attempted to extinguish the fire when he was stricken. Dr. Fisher worked over the body for some time but it was evident he had been dead several hours before being found.

Mr. Gaw has resided at 293 Webster street for the past 35 years. He was a gardener and care taker of many estates in West Newton.

Funeral services were held at his home Wednesday at 2 P. M. Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church of Newton officiated. Interment was in the family lot at the Newton Cemetery.

Mr. Gaw is survived by three sons and five daughters.

APPOINTMENTS TO ANNAPOLIS

Congressman Robert Luce announces that he will have vacancies to be filled at the West Point Military Academy and the Annapolis Naval Academy in June, 1922. A preliminary competitive examination will be held sometime in December for the purpose of making designations to which eligible residents of the Thirteenth District will be admitted upon application.

NEWTON CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

HELP PUEBLO

The following proclamation was issued by the President of the United States on June 6, 1921.

"To the people of the United States: Overwhelming disaster has come to the people of Pueblo and surrounding districts. Realization of their sufferings now, and in the days to come, prompts me to issue an urgent request to all whose sympathies are awakened to assist the labors of the American Red Cross which has quickly organized to deal with the first great need and will stand by until homes and home life can be re-established."

"Contributions may be sent at once through the office of any Chapter, or directly to Red Cross Headquarters at Washington, for use in the stricken territory."

WARREN G. HARDING.

Citizens of Newton who desire to contribute for the relief of the terrible suffering due to the floods in Colorado are asked to send their contributions to John W. Estabrook, Treasurer, Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, 306 Walnut street, Newtonville, Mass.

Any funds received will be forwarded promptly and immediately available for the sufferers in the stricken territory.

GEORGE M. ANGIER, Chairman.

STONE INSTITUTE

The annual reception and sale at the Stone Institute and Home for Aged People took place last Saturday afternoon.

On Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Park of West Newton, spoke to the students of the three upper classes. He set forth and explained a plan of two former graduates of this school who are desirous of giving a cup each year to the most worthy boy and girl in the senior class. The names of the winners will be placed on two large cups which are to remain in the school from year to year. Small cups will also be presented to the boy and girl who in the eyes of the students and the teachers are most deserving of them. The members of the sub-senior and senior classes will nominate 5 boys and 5 girls. The teachers and the head master will select the winners from this list. Selections are to be made on consideration of the character of the student, scholarship, athletic ability, and personality.

A notice has been posted by Coach Dickinson urging all those students who intend to try for next year's football team to report for practise Sept. 7 at 2:30, despite the fact that school does not open until the twelfth.

Newton High won second place in the Suburban League on Wednesday when the ball team defeated Medford by the score of 2 to 1.

CLAFIN GUARD VETERAN ASSOCIATION

The annual summer outing of this Association will be held on Tuesday, June 21st, with an automobile trip to Camp Devens, as the guests of General Hersey, U. S. Army, Commander of the camp, and Colonel Osborn, Commander of the Engineers Regiment, Mass. Nat. Guard, followed by a dinner at the Groton Inn, Groton. At the camp, besides troops of the regular army, will be organizations of the National Guard from Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut, and the outing should be very interesting.

This association which is twenty-six years old, has always held a prominent and respected position in Newton. Since their last annual meeting and dinner, they have nearly doubled their membership, and expect to increase it largely before next October, when the Annual Meeting and dinner is to be held at the Newton Club.

At two o'clock came the reunion of the alumnae and old girls. Among the many girls who "came home" was one from the class of '57—and many others were present from the classes of the early days. At the close of the business meeting Miss Packard interestingly told of her trip to California. While there and on the way she visited a number of Lasell girls and was the guest of honor at five Lasell reunions.

COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

The graduation exercises of the Country Day School took place on Thursday afternoon. There were nine graduates, of whom the following were from Newton: Merrill Garcelon, Newton; John D. Houghton, Chestnut Hill; William P. Ripley, Newton Centre; Wallace G. Soule, Newton; A. Langdon Spring, Newton Centre; Lincoln E. Studley, Newton Highlands.

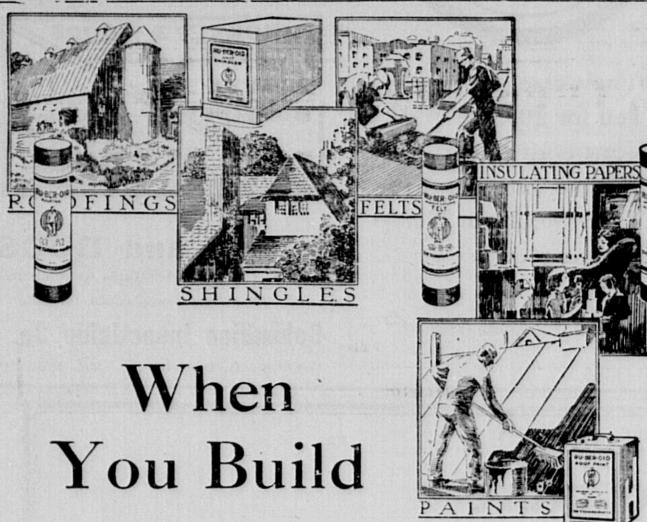

The exercises began with an invocation by Rev. D. Brewer Eddy. The speaker was Professor William Z. Ripley of Harvard University, whose son was one of the graduating boys. The headmaster of the school, Mr. Shirley K. Kerns, made a short address, during which he announced the prize awards of the year.

Among the prizes won by Newton boys may be mentioned the following: Scholarship, Honorable Mention; Lawrence O. Pratt of West Newton; Reading Prize, F. Stanley Hallett, '24, of Newton; Herbert S. Smith, '24, of Newton Centre; Oral Reading Prize, Edward S. J. Nealey, '24, of Newton; Charles Terry Collens, '25, of Newton Centre; Bird Prize, Waters Kellogg, '28, of Chestnut Hill; Written English Honorable Mention, S. Willard Bridges, Jr., '22, of Newton; Laurence O. Pratt, '22, of West Newton; Charles W. Bartlett, 2d, '23, of Waban; William E. Soule, '23, of Newton; Patriotic Essay Prize, offered by the National Society of Colonial Dames, Franco V. Montanari of Newton, an Italian who has been in this country and in the school just two years. He also won the prize for excellence in written English in all subjects throughout the school year.

NORUMBEGA PARK

The beautiful June and typical summer weather has caused the daily attendance at Norumbega Park to break all records for the same season of the year ever experienced at this favorite amusement resort.

An added amusement and fun-maker now in the course of construction, known to the larger Park patrons as "Dogem," will be completed and open to the public in the course of the next few days. This, no doubt, will attract thousands of people, as it is the newest and greatest laugh-maker ever conceived.

When You Build

Grouped under the name Ruberoid we are handling a line of asphaltic weatherproofing products of the highest quality. These products should be used in every building which is expected to give complete and permanent protection from the elements.

The Ruberoid Co. is a pioneer in the prepared roofing field. Ruberoid Roll Roofing has lasted on many roofs for more than twenty years with the limit of its endurance yet to be established. You can readily see that our line of weatherproofing products is backed by a reputation of long standing and upheld by actual use. This is one example of the high quality which is the birthright of every product bearing the name Ruberoid.

We have handled Ruberoid Products for many years and are well informed regarding the quality of these products, the purposes which they serve and the manner in which they should be used. We can help you with your building problems in a fashion nowhere excelled in the industry.

When you build or repair, be sure to use Ruberoid Weatherproofing Products.

GREEK COSTUME PLAY

The play "Endymion" was given by the girls of the Carroll School Tuesday forenoon, June 7th, on the grounds of Frank W. Remick's estate, Exeter street, West Newton. So well trained by Miss Barbour, Miss Hunter, Miss Puffer, and Mrs. Wilkins of the faculty were these young schoolgirls that a general opinion of the spectators was that the performance would have done credit to college students.

The difficult part of Endymion, the beauteous huntsman beloved by the goddess Artemis (Eleanor Macomber), was well taken by Katherine Cowin, the loyalty of the hero's friend Eumenides (Mary Elizabeth Frost) makes him give up that which he holds dearest in order to rescue his friend from the spell which Morphous (Esther Cook) has cast upon him for daring to prefer his sweetheart Phryne (Dorthea Brant). To the Goddess of the Silver Bow, What Eumenides held dearest was his betrothed, Callithene (Hope Gregory), who acquiesces in a sacrifice, happily never called for because Artemis is moved by such devotion and blesses the proposed union of the two faithful couples.

Other leading parts were taken by Celia Rogers and Shirley Eddy as King Aeolus and Queen Hermia, Katherine Woods as Hermes, messenger of the gods, and Constance Burr as a priest of Zeus.

A pleasing feature was furnished by a troop of appropriately attired dryads, impersonated by the younger girls, Betty Dwinnell, Nancy Mandell, Edith Garrison, Mary Esther Cooper, Lydia Albree, Margaret Spencer, Virginia Beal, and Virginia Hatch, and led by Faith Garrison as Pan, who improved upon the monotony of much classical dancing by interspersing a few "cartwheels."

Others taking part were Virginia Marshall, Barbara Bryant, Margaret Blunt, Barbara Bonelli, Marion Hutchinson, Dorothy Newton, Esther Burr, Catherine Bolster, Marguerite Hatch, and Martha Lander.

The costumes, studiously faithful to the supposed time of the play, were very attractive, and with a beautiful sloping lawn, fringed with trees, for a setting, the graceful, picturesquely garbed young participants furnished a spectacle not soon to be forgotten.

The "curtain-raiser" was a bright and well acted French play in the form of a charade: Fa-ci-li-te, in which the leading parts were taken by Marjorie Fales, Mary Minns, Eleanor Hartwell, Sarah Woodland, Virginia Marshall, and Betty Lowry.

DURANT INC. RALLY

Durant Inc. Rally! Wednesday evening, June 15th, at 7.45, at the Central Congregational Church, Walnut street, Newtonville. Dr. Dennis will preside. The Rev. M. H. Lichliter will speak. Miss Child and Miss Tupper will assist. This is an open meeting. Every member come and bring as many friends as possible.

DEATH OF MR. DORCHESTER

Mr. Chester Otis Dorchester died at his home, 47 Winthrop street, West Newton, on Sunday, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Dorchester was born in Worcester, Mass., and is the son of Dr. Daniel Dorchester of Boston, a well-known Methodist preacher, and U. S. Supt. of Indian Schools.

At the time of his death, Mr. Chester Dorchester was head teller in the Shawmut Bank of Boston. He leaves a widow, Edith Kimball Dorchester; a son, Stanley Dorchester of Marlboro, Mass., and a daughter, Mrs. Harry Hanson, wife of Professor Hanson of Lucknow, India. There are also two brothers, Dr. L. H. Dorchester of Hartford, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church, Newton Centre, and the Rev. Daniel Dorchester of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly a pastor at Newtonville.

Mr. Dorchester was president of the Methodist Social Union of Boston, treasurer of the Boston Indian Industries League and chairman of the Methodist Minute Men of Boston. He was also treasurer of the Superintendents' Fund of the Methodist Conference and twice lay delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Church.

Services were held on Wednesday at his late residence, Rev. Charles R. Ross of the Methodist Church, Newtonville, officiating, assisted by Dr. Shepler, superintendent of the Boston District of the Methodist Church. Representatives of the Shawmut Bank, and other Newton and Boston friends were present, and there were many beautiful floral tributes. The burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

INFORMAL RECEPTION

Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, rector of Trinity Church, was given an informal reception in the parish house last Tuesday by his parishioners in honor of his thirtieth anniversary as rector of the church.

Mr. Sullivan came to Trinity Church from the Theological School and has been its rector ever since. Only one other rector has held his present position as long as has Mr. Sullivan. Of those who have been members of Trinity Church during the thirty years two were present on Tuesday, Mrs. Charles H. Fessenden and Mrs. Frank H. Ratcliffe, the other two, Mrs. C. H. Wilson and Mrs. Louis H. Fitch were unable to be present.

The parish house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with iris and peonies, and upon the mantel were placed thirty lighted candles. Mrs. Allen Hubbard and Mrs. Robert Casson had charge of the decorations.

About 150 people took this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of Mr. Sullivan's services.

The committee in charge were Mrs. M. A. Williams representing the Service League, Mrs. L. H. Fitch representing the Woman's Auxiliary, and Mr. S. Paul representing the Men's Club.

96TH ANNIVERSARY

Graduation exercises in connection with the ninety-sixth anniversary of the Newton Theological Institution were held Monday afternoon in the Baptist Church at Newton Centre, a class of twelve seniors receiving diplomas.

The program included the singing of familiar hymns, a prayer by the pastor of the church, Rev. Charles N. Ar buckle, D.D., organ and violin music and the reading of these essays: "Democracy in Church Music," Paul E. Alden; "The Church—Labor's Friend or Foe?" Edward A. Bell; "The Reactions of the Italians to American Life," George E. Blackwell; "The Contributions of Missions upon Christianity," Francesco Call; "What Shall We Emphasize in Life Enlistment?" Leonard L. Campbell.

Rev. George E. Horr, D. D., president of the college, presented diplomas and conferred the degrees. He also pronounced the benediction after Professor James P. Berkeley of the Department of Religious Education of the institution had made an address to the class.

Following the graduation exercises the usual reception was held at the institution.

GLEASON—ROBERTS

Among the June brides of last Saturday was Miss Mildred Alpha Roberts of Sawin street, Natick, who was married to Mr. William H. Gleason of Concord street, Newton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Orville E. Crane of the Methodist Church, Natick.

The sister of the bride, Miss Doris M. Roberts, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Herbert Gleason of Newton the best man.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette with white satin trimmings, white tulle veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid's gown was of pink chiffon and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony, the house being tastefully decorated with a floral arch and potted plants.

After a wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason will live at 19 Sawin street, Natick.

TOURIST TRAVEL TO ALASKA

Judging from the early reservations and the difficulty in securing accommodations, there will be unusually heavy travel to Alaska this summer. This is probably on account of the most wonderful scenic grandeur offered en route. There are few trips so interesting or so intensely worth while as that to Alaska and the Yukon River.

The beauties of the Alps with their glaciers are more equalled in our own Rainier National Park, and also in the Canadian Rocky Mountains. The Fjords of Norway are reproduced in Alaska, but with the added charm of the great glaciers and the picturesque icebergs to which they give birth.

The Colpitts-Beeckman Tourist Co., 281 Washington street, Boston, are arranging for a small Alaska party, leaving June 27th, including all expenses.

This company is also arranging other attractive trips through the Canadian Rockies to the Pacific Coast including California, and the Grand Canyon.

Promotional tourists should secure booklet of these tours giving full particulars.

Miss Wright is well known socially as having been quite prominent in amateur theatricals. Her sister, Mrs. Frederick Smith, is a musician of note. Mr. Newell is assistant cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Boston, treasurer of the W. D. Young Company, member of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and of the Albemarle Golf Club. The marriage will occur in the fall.

GIVE A GARMENT WEEK RESULTS

Due to the co-operation and fine spirit of the members of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross and the citizens of Newton, once again we have exceeded the quota assigned to us which was 2500 garments and 500 layettes.

Something in excess of 5000 garments have already been received, and all the layettes have been taken to be made up during the summer months—in fact, the demand exceeded the supply.

The officers and directors of the Newton Chapter greatly appreciate the splendid co-operation of the members. G. M. ANGIER, Chairman.

The Man Who Starts Too Late

Though Jim ran fast he was unable to flip the last car of the train.

A sympathizing onlooker said, "You didn't run fast enough." "Oh yes I did," said Jim, "but I didn't start soon enough".

Many a Jim has made good money who is unable to seize a business opportunity.

What good is an opportunity to you if you didn't start a bank account in time to accumulate the money it calls for.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE AT BRAY HALL

Largely Attended by Newton, Brookline and Boston People

Mr. John Sidney Braithwaite, M. A. C. S. B., of London, England, was the lecturer at Bray Hall, Newton Centre, last evening, his subject being: Christian Science: The Key to Self Government. He was introduced by Mr. Edwin C. Johnson of Newton Highlands, who said:

I should be ungrateful tonight, if in introducing the speaker, I did not voice my gratitude for all that Christian Science has meant to me.

Twenty-five years ago this fall it looked as if I should have to give up trying to get an education. I was then attending the Boston Latin School. My eyes had given out and I was unable to study. My father had always worn glasses and an occultist said that I had inherited astigmatism and would have to wear glasses all my life. I had lost two years from school and was about to lose a third, when my mother's attention was called to Christian Science treatment, through the healing of her brother. We tried Christian Science treatment, my eyes were healed, I gave up the glasses I had worn for three years, made up one of the two years of school I had lost, and completed my education. Shortly after this the family physician nearly frightened my mother to death by telling her that she had a serious case of heart trouble and would have to be very careful in whatever she did. She tried Christian Science treatment, was entirely healed, and is today sprier and more active than most young people.

In these twenty-five years, Christian Science has been my only medicine and a constant daily help in the problems that come to all of us in our home life, in the community, and in the business world.

Now, the motives and purposes back of this lecture and of all connected with it are the highest possible,—namely, to help mankind. It is therefore absolutely right that good should come out of this meeting. Nothing can prevent it.

The lecture is being given under the auspices of the local Christian Science Church, called First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, which holds services Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings in Players Hall, West Newton.

The purpose of the speaker is to voice the truth concerning Christian Science. He is worthy and well qualified to speak to us with authority, for he is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

It is with pleasure that I present Mr. John Sidney Braithwaite.

Mr. Braithwaite spoke as follows:

In seeking for a test to apply to any form of religious teaching one hardly would expect to improve on the words of an eighteenth century writer who says "That is the truest doctrine which hath a tendency to make thee live in the best and wisest manner." Christian Science nevertheless proposes a further test, for it says that if such doctrine is based on the teachings of Christ Jesus, as it surely will be, then it should be found to confer in addition the best health. It is just because Christian Science has helped and is helping so many people to a better and wiser manner of life, besides healing them of physical ailments and keeping them well, that so much interest has been aroused in it.

The essential sanity and health and optimism which permeate Christian Science are helping to leaven human thought, and to supply the moral qualities that are needed to hold it steadfast in the midst of present storms and beating waves.

Christian Science strengthens the weak hands, confirms the feeble knees and says to those that are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, fear not."

Many of us are here, no doubt, in the spirit of enquiry, we want to know in what way this teaching substantiates its claim to be both Christian and Science, we want to know how the healing is done, and perhaps also whether it is applicable to our own case. These points I shall try to explain, and also I shall try to show that in seeking the truth about God's government of His universe, we find the truth about individual self-government. There is no lesson more needed today than that of self-government, for until that is learned one cannot be ready, as all should be, to participate in the government of the people, which means government in obedience to divine Law. It is not clear that a nation or a movement will be safe when self-government is the first concern of the individuals composing it?

Mary Baker Eddy

When one considers the place that the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, occupies in the unfoldment of Christianity, one finds it to be unique. You cannot compare her to such religious teachers or reformers as Luther, Calvin, Wesley or George Fox for this reason, that while each one of those men had his distinct message to the age in which he lived and each one had a certain genius for organization, not one ever claimed the full measure of the Master's promises. It seems that they did not see far enough to associate his teaching with the word Science, neither did they dare to advocate physical healing as an essential part of the Master's instructions to his disciples throughout all time. They did not know how to do so, and in some instances where healing occurred, they even feared lest it should result in a darkening of their message, through a building up of their own personality, in place of the Christ. And, mind you, they were not very wide of the mark in estimating this danger, but Mrs. Eddy saw it too and faced it. She fearlessly insisted on healing as an essential feature of Christianity, but she also saw that nothing but strict adherence to the truth could qualify for this demonstration. She was a Moses to this age, saying, as Moses said to the children of Israel, "If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healest thee."

Mrs. Eddy brought to Christianity that which had hitherto lacked—the Science of its teaching. Nothing could be added to the spirit of the Master's teaching, but the age was demanding its scientific and systematic explanation. Mrs. Eddy supplied both. Her book, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures" is the textbook of Christian Science, and her Church Manual provides the rules by which this healing system becomes an integral feature of the Church of Christ. These two books never called to Christian Science treatment, through the healing of her brother. We tried Christian Science treatment, my eyes were healed, I gave up the glasses I had worn for three years, made up one of the two years of school I had lost, and completed my education. Shortly after this the family physician nearly frightened my mother to death by telling her that she had a serious case of heart trouble and would have to be very careful in whatever she did. She tried Christian Science treatment, was entirely healed, and is today sprier and more active than most young people.

The story of Mrs. Eddy's own healing was occasioned by a sudden flash of illumination thrown on a passage of Scripture, has been so often told that I will not repeat it now, but it is perhaps not so generally known that it was a regular physician who urged her to embody her discovery in a book and thus give to the world her curative system of divine metaphysics. He had good reason for doing so, for he had seen her heal pneumonia instantaneously, when he himself had declared that the patient could not live.

The story of Mrs. Eddy's own healing was occasioned by a sudden flash of illumination thrown on a passage of Scripture, has been so often told that I will not repeat it now, but it is perhaps not so generally known that it was a regular physician who urged her to embody her discovery in a book and thus give to the world her curative system of divine metaphysics. He had good reason for doing so, for he had seen her heal pneumonia instantaneously, when he himself had declared that the patient could not live.

One might dwell at considerable length on Mrs. Eddy's deeply spiritual nature, her unselfed and statesman-like leadership of the Christian Science movement, her far-seeing wisdom, her loving warning, her stern rebuke, and her gentle entreaty, but I think that the world today is more willing to concede these things than it formerly was and to give to her her rightful place, and so I will proceed to deal with some aspects of her discovery.

Back to the Bible

Perhaps the most important thing that Christian Science does for the real truthseeker is that it gives him back his Bible. So many people have let their Bibles go in exchange for the more speculative and uninspired writings of would-be leaders of thought. They have wandered far into theories about health, government, human nature, death and the hereafter, in many cases only to return by the same door they went in saying as old Omar said: "There was the door to which I found no key."

There was the veil through which I might not see."

And just as we may hear nowadays the call of "back to the land," reminding men of the essentials of existence, lost sight of in the anxieties of the war or the rush and speculation of the city, so in Christian Science the cry is "back to the Bible." There you will find the door you seek to open, and here in Christian Science is the key to it. The very first of the tenets of Christian Science is "As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life."

It may be asked how one is to know which parts of the Bible are "inspired Word" and which are not. What about the talking serpent, Noah and his ark, the whale that swallowed Jonah, and a hundred other things either unintelligible or unbelievable? Well, these things do not have to be regarded as actual material occurrences, but rather as word pictures or illustrations to show what takes place in the human consciousness when the truth begins to enlighten it. Suppose that someone were to take you into a large room filled with furniture, pictures, and other curios, but dimly lighted that you could barely distinguish the various objects and certainly could make nothing of them, and then he should begin to tell you of their great interest and priceless value. You might say to him "all that you say about these things may be perfectly true, but it hardly interests me because I can't see them in this dim light."

If the light were turned up it would all be quite different. You could see the things then, study them and form your own estimate of them.

That is what Christian Science does for the Bible. It turns up the light, so that all can see for themselves.

Text-Book Commentary

The key which the Christian Science text-book supplies to the Bible brings a power of discernment hitherto unsuspected, so that one is released from the old fossilized theories that have neither Science nor common sense to support them and learns to think clearly, connectedly and authoritatively, first on the Scriptures themselves, and then on every phase of human experience. In this way one finds self-government, and self-government brings authority with it—the authority which comes from right thinking. It was of this kind of authority, as illustrated in the life of the Master that it was written on one occasion that the spectators were "amazed," and questioned among themselves, saying, "What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits and they obey him."

Christian Science explains that in the life of Jesus the Mind which created the Universe was become articulate in human experience, so that all false belief and materialism knowing its hour was come, literally quailed before it. The divine Principle, which holds all things in its orderly grasp, was expressing itself in the thoughts and actions of a man.

Christian Science reveals to us that this same Mind, or Principle, is today omnipresent and is God. Many people nowadays are using vague terms such as Providence, fate, luck, destiny, and so on, to denote their sense of God, but these terms have not been found to satisfy in times of

DEATH OF MR. EDWARDS

Mr. Adoniram J. Edwards of Lyman street, Newton Centre, died on Tuesday at the Newton Hospital, after a ten days' illness which was the result of a fall.

Mr. Edwards was born in Ellsworth, Maine, Jan. 12, 1838, but spent part of his life in Somerville where he was a member of the Willard C. Kinsley Post 139 G. A. R.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. C. H. Lovewell of Wellesley, a son, Mr. Loring B. Edwards, inspector of wires in the fire department of Newton, and two sisters, Mrs. Lena E. Porter of Pleasantville, N. Y., and Mrs. H. T. Haynes of Somerville.

Services were held at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, Wellesley, on Thursday, and the burial was in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley.

CHURCH NOTICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton. Players Hall, Washington St., West Newton. Sunday Service, 10:45 A. M. Subject of lesson-sermon: "God the Preserver of Man." Sunday School 10:45 A. M. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and to use the Reading Room at 297 Walnut St., Newtonville, which is open daily from 2 to 6 in the afternoon, and on Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 7:30 until 9:00.

FOUND BY WIRELESS

Several hundred amateur and professional wireless operators are aiding in forwarding information to the local police of localities within a hundred miles of Boston, of the men and things wanted by the police of Boston and surrounding cities.

The information desired is telephoned each night to the wireless station of the American Radio and Research Corporation at Medford from whence it is sent out broadcast.

One of the first, if not the very first results of this work came last week when Charles H. Barney, Jr., of Braemore road, Newton, listening in on his brother Edwin's wireless receiver, heard the particulars of a stolen automobile and took them down on a note book. The next morning he noticed an automobile standing on the side of Hunnewell Avenue which appeared to answer the description of what he had heard the previous evening and after verifying the numbers communicated with the Cambridge police who came over and took the car away.

The new system has already proved its value in furnishing the local authorities with quick and accurate descriptions of men and things wanted.

NEWTON HOSPITAL NURSES

Commencement exercises at the Newton Hospital began last week Sunday with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Edward M. Noyes of the First Church, Newton Centre.

On Tuesday, the seniors held their party and dance. On Thursday, the graduating exercises were held in the tent out-of-doors. Dr. Washburn of the Massachusetts General Hospital, being the speaker. There were eighteen graduates. Mr. Charles S. Kelsey of Newton Centre gave out the diplomas, and Miss Riddle, Superintendent of the Hospital gave the badges.

On Friday, the seniors were the guests of the Alumnae at Princeton, Mass., many of the doctors generously offering their automobiles for the occasion. The day was a beautiful one, and fifty-three including the doctors and nurses, enjoyed the outing.

CARPENTERS ACCEPT REDUCTION

The Union carpenters comprising the District Council of Newton, Waltham, Natick, Needham and Concord, have just completed a referendum vote with the result of reducing the wages in this district to 90 cents per hour.

This vote was taken in the hope that a reduction would help to stabilize and stimulate the building industry in this district.

The Master Builders Association of this district, and the Unions are working harmoniously, and hope to eliminate all causes of friction by conferences and mutual concession.

By agreement with the Master Builders this reduction goes into effect immediately and continues in force till April, 1922.

BOYS HURT

Following a loud report Sunday Thomas Murphy of Lewis terrace went to a dump nearby and found two boys seriously injured from the effects of an explosion. The boys are Matthew Grella, 9, of 14 Clinton street, Nonantum, and Ernest Di Simone, 9, of 24 Adams street.

Murphy hurried the boys to the office of Dr. Gallagher in his automobile. The Di Simone boy's face is badly lacerated and the Grella boy's abdomen was also lacerated. Both were bleeding profusely. They were sent to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Brighton.

The boys are said to have been walking along a fence which enclosed the dump and to have jumped down among the rubbish.

CITY OF NEWTON,
MASSACHUSETTSNOTICE TO CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS

Sealed proposals for constructing lunch tables required by the School Department of the City of Newton will be received at the office of the School Committee, Technical High School, Newtonville, Mass., until 12 M. June 10, 1921.

Proposals must be plainly marked on envelope "Proposal for Constructing Lunch Tables."

All proposals must be upon blank forms in triplicate furnished by said Department, and must be accompanied by a certified check upon a national bank or trust company doing business in Massachusetts for the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the proposal which it accompanies is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to file a bond as required.

A surety bond for the faithful performance of the contract in a penal sum equal to approximately twenty-five per cent (25%) of the accepted bid will be required.

Specifications and forms of contract can be obtained at the office of the School Committee, Technical High School, Newtonville, Mass.

Any alteration or addition to the terms of the specifications and form of the proposal contract may be considered by the City as a cause for rejection of the bidder's proposal.

The Department reserves the right to accept or reject any and all bids or any part of any bid.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

Troop 7 met with more than fifty Scouts present at its last meeting. Senior Patrol Leader "Billie" Phelps was in charge of the troop, while all the first class scouts took a hand in the direction of the Scout movements and periods.

Scoutmaster Crowell worked with the applicants practically the entire evening; Scoutmaster Cooke drilled the second and first class scouts and it was the general opinion among all the boys that the cadence was the best we have ever had; Scoutmaster Dow was in charge of the "rookies." In every case however the masters acted only as advisers and supervisors.

Tonight Scoutmaster Smith has planned the meeting and will be in general charge of the meeting and will take care of the planning for the Scout Rally tomorrow.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

Vocational High and Technical High Schools Hold Closing Exercises

The Graduating Exercises of the Newton Vocational High School were held on Wednesday evening, June 8, in the Technical High School Hall. Twenty-nine regular students were graduated and seven young women from the special one-year Home Making Course received diplomas. Most of these young women were either graduates of high school or college graduates. The class started with twenty pupils, and most of those who did not receive a certificate at this time have been married and were actually practicing homemaking when the others received their certificates.

The address of the evening was made by the Rev. William Devlin, President of Boston College, who spoke with much earnestness and feeling regarding the spirit which young people should carry with them through life.

In presenting the class gift, Edward Fahey, one of the honor pupils, called attention to the retirement of Miss Mary A. Laselle, who has been a teacher in the Newton public schools for many years, first in the Mason school and for the last eight years in the Vocational School. The Class presented $12.00 to the school to purchase a bookcase for the Library, to be known as the Mary A. Laselle Section.

Mayor Edwin O. Childs presented the diplomas and made one of his usual pointed and pithy addresses.

The honor pupils were as follows:

Elizabeth Whitney Adams
Evelyn Rosamond Cole
Dorothy Jane Frye
Priscilla Bradstreet James
Alice Mills
Dorothy Wade
Roy Harold Engstrom
Edward Ambrose Fahey
Wilfred Swaine

The other members of the graduating class were:

The graduating exercises of the Technical High school class of 1921 took place last Friday evening in the assembly hall of the school.

The program included prayer by Rev. H. Grant Person of Eliot church, selections by the High School orchestra, the Glee Club and by a double quartet, a violin solo by Mary Pucciarelli and papers by Margaret Ursula Barry, Ell Swartz, Charles Laffie, Edwin Palmer Leonard, Jr., and Edith Hart Quimby. The address to the class was given by Dr. William Trufant Foster.

The class gifts included a set of scenery for the assembly hall, four pictures for different rooms and a memorial book for the librarian for Nelson H. Cardell, a former teacher. They were presented by Archibald MacGregor, president of the class.

The faculty prizes were awarded to Evelyn T. Nordstrom and Martin Charles Laffie, and were presented by Mr. Harrington.

The honor medal offered by the Mass. Society D. A. R. was also won by Miss Nordstrom and the Puritan essay prizes went to Helen Conroy and John Lucy.

Mayor Childs presented diplomas to the class.

25TH REUNION

Class of 1896 Newton High School Celebrates Its Silver Anniversary

The class of '96 of the Newton High School held its 25th reunion at the High School building in Newtonville on Saturday afternoon, June 11th. An informal reception was held in the library of the Classical High School. The buildings were open for the inspection of the members, who were the last class to graduate from the old high school. Interest, of course, centered around Rooms 6, 7, 18 and 19, which are all that remain of the former building.

Later in the afternoon pictures of the class taken twenty-five years ago and of their families today were thrown on the screen by the school lantern for the entertainment of those present. At the same time, Miss Marion Bassett read a brief but bright sketch of the accomplishments of the different members since graduating.

At seven a dinner was served at the Newton Club to 63 members of the class and their husbands and wives, and to Mr. Walton, Miss Leland, Miss Bruce, Miss Owen, Miss Hazen and Miss Poor, still members of the present teaching force, but who helped the class of '96 on its way. Col. Benyon was present during the afternoon and regrets were received from Miss Ireson, Mr. S. Warren Davis and Mr. Goodwin, principal of the school when this class graduated.

Mr. E. C. Adams, the present principal, attended both reception and dinner. During the dinner several musical selections were contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Knight, members of the class. Mr. Amasa C. Gould served as toastmaster very efficiently. Mr. Adams responded first with a very interesting talk about the high school as it is today and some of its problems, comparing it in a few details with the school of twenty-five years ago. All of the teachers present spoke, recalling incidents of the years '92 to '96 and of their points of view. Mrs. Biscoe (Agnes Slocum), Ella Mason, Mrs. Davidson (Harriet Willey), Arthur Hollis, Leon Dutch and Sawyer Bullens all entertained with their minute toasts.

Mr. Walton lead the singing, "The Soldiers' Chorus" from "Faust," sung at the '96 graduation, being the first song on the program.

During the afternoon, Mr. Wormwood, a member of the class, took pictures of the gathering. These will be on exhibition at Mr. Tuttle's drug store in Newtonville.

The following committee was in charge: Chairman, Mrs. Edward A. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Russell C. Gibbs; Ralph W. Angier, A. Warren Armington, Miss Constance Ashenden, Miss Marion D. Bassett.

BOY SCOUTS RALLY

Newton Highlands Troops Wins First Place in Contest on Claffin Field

Last Saturday afternoon, June 11, the troops of Norumbega Council (Newton, Wellesley), assembled on Claffin Field, Newtonville, for the Annual Spring Rally and Scoutcraft Contest. With fine weather and plenty of enthusiasm, accompanied with many sportsmanship, the Rally was eventful. The program opened with the usual review, and inspection by His Honor, Mayor Childs, President Stafford of the Council, Commissioner Benbow and his staff of officers. Executive Sharratt, who had general charge of the Rally, led the parade and kept things moving throughout.

The Scoutcraft program created great interest upon the part of the visitors, among the boys who had so zealously prepared for the contest were alive to the necessity of doing their best to hold up the high standing of their troops. Each event was held under the charge of a special officer and were as follows:

1. Friction Fire—Won by Scout Robert Rees of Troop 11, Newton.

2. Semaphore Signaling—Won by team, Troop 2, Wellesley; 2nd place by Troop 4 team, Newton Highlands.

3. Water-boiling with an allowance of two matches for lighting the fire—Won by Robert Hersey of Troop 2, Wellesley.

4. Knot Tying Race—Won by Troop 2, Wellesley team; 2nd place by Troop 1, Newtonville; 3rd place, Troop 4, Newton Highlands.

5. First Aid—Won by Troop 11 team, Newton; 2nd place by Troop 4.

6. Antelope Race—Won by team from Troop 6, Nonantum; 2nd place by Troop 7, West Newton; 3rd place by Troop 11.

7. Horse Signaling—Won by Troop 4; 2nd place by Troop 7; 3rd place by Troop 2, Wellesley.

8. Bugling—Won by Bugler Duly of Troop 11, Newton; 2nd place by Bugler Studley of Troop 4, Newton Highlands; 3rd place, Troop 8.

9. Equipment Race—Won by Troop 1, Newtonville; 2nd place by Troop 2, Wellesley; 3rd place by Troop 6, Nonantum.

10. Tent Pitching—Won by Troop 4, Newton Highlands; 2nd by Troop 1; 3rd by Troop 2, Wellesley.

11. Competitive Drill—Won by Troop 11; 2nd by Troop 1; 3rd by Troop 6.

TAKE NO ACTION

Aldermen Decide it is Inexpedient to Stop Proposed Factory Near Cabot Park

After a week of conferences and negotiations and many hours of hard work on the part of the officials of the Newtonville and Newton Improvement Associations in raising funds, to prevent the erection of a factory building adjoining Cabot Park in Newtonville by the Security Mills, the final show-down came at the meeting of the aldermen on Monday night, and the final decision of that board refusing to take any action in the matter.

The board transacted a little routine business and then recessed to allow a select committee of Aldermen Harrington, Nichols and Phipps to confer with the interested parties. When the committee returned the board went into the committee of the whole for another hour and on reopening the regular session, the report of the committee of the whole that it was inexpedient to take action was adopted by a voice vote.

It was rumored that citizens of Newtonville and Newton had subscribed or underwritten substantially $6,000 toward the damages alleged to have been received by the Security Mills, that the Company at first demanded $31,000 damages but later came down to $21,000, and that evidence had been produced that these damages ought not to exceed $15,000 and might be as low as $10,000. It was the hope of the citizens interested that the city might take the land under eminent domain and pay whatever damages might be exacted on Hancock street.

The Middlesex Stations Trust asked for renewal of its gasoline permit at 1100 Beacon street, Henry Roberts wanted a taxi cab license, the Gas Co. permits to open up Fisher Avenue, Woodard street, and Carlton road, and Fred N. Balsor wanted a private garage on Hancock street.

until you want to borrow, to buy or build a home before investigating the many attractive inducements to SAVE MONEY WITH US!

Ours is the best plan ever devised for the safe and profitable investment and accumulation of money. The bank is under State Supervision and is a mutual institution. More important even than the money saved is the habit of regular saving acquired by the exacting of fixed monthly deposits.

For many years we have paid 5 3/4% dividends compounded quarterly. Deposits go on interest immediately. This rate is higher than usually obtains in other kinds of banks.

You may start with almost any amount from $1 up to several thousand, which can be represented by from one to 49 shares in which you deposit $1.00 per month for each share held. If you continue until the amount deposited plus interest equals $2.00 a share, you may then withdraw the money or leave it in the bank where it will continue to earn interest. Call or write and we will explain more fully.

GARDEN NEWS

Hot weather if accompanied by frequent rains is very favorable for the development of weeds. If the weather becomes very dry, garden crops will begin to suffer from drought. Either of these conditions requires frequent and thorough cultivation in the garden. All competition between vegetables and weeds for plant food and moisture should be entirely prevented by destroying the weeds almost before they appear above the surface of the ground.

Already backyard gardeners everywhere are resorting to the garden hose because there have been two weeks of comparatively dry weather. This is a very bad practice, except among plants such as strawberries that cannot be tilled. There is no plot of land that is yet so dry that plenty of moisture is not available if proper tillage has been given. Breaking up the surface layer of the soil with the cultivator or hoe destroys the capillarity in that layer and leaves it as a dust mulch which prevents the escape of moisture from the soil below.

To be effective in retaining moisture, it is obvious that the cultivating must be done before the moisture escapes. As soon after every rain as the soil becomes dry enough to work, it should be thoroughly tilled. Cultivation should be repeated at least once in ten days even though no rain occurs in the meantime.

If drought persists for several more weeks, it will then be time to use the hose. When this is done, it should be done thoroughly, applying enough water to soak the soil to a depth of two inches, just as would occur after a day of gentle rain fall. Frequent light surface sprinklings which so many gardeners are in the habit of giving their gardens and lawns do much more harm than good. The water does not reach the roots and there is a tendency to attract the fine rootlets to the surface where they are quickly withered by the heat and sun. Enough water should be put on at one time to last a week. In order to make this possible thorough tillage should follow the use of the hose.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., report that they have sold for Frank E. Ellis his modern, 12-room home, located at 131 Sargent street, in the Farlow Hill section of Newton. With the house, there is a large, frame stable and garage, together with 20,000 square feet of land. The total valuation of the property is $21,500. W. G. Bentley of Pennsylvania purchases for a home.

The Burns Agency also report that they have sold a new brick colonial home, located at 192 Nehden road, in the Waban section. This house has just been completed. With it there are 20,000 square feet of land, and the total valuation is $16,500. F. E. Pierce purchases for a home. John T. Burns, Sr., was the grantor.

The Burns Agency have also sold for G. E. Dickey the single, 9-room home, located at 19 Dickerman road, in the Elliott section of Newton Highlands. With the house there are 6000 feet of land and the total valuation is $7500. Francis Searway purchases for a home and will occupy immediately.

Burns & Sons have also sold for James E. Adams his single, 8-room home, located at 85 Newtonville avenue in the Mt. Ida section of Newton. With the house there are 7500 feet of land in all, valued at $5500. Charles M. Corey was the purchaser and will occupy the premises shortly.

WITH FULL HONORS

The body of Earl J. Reinhalter, the former bugler of C Co., 101st Infantry A. E. F., and who died in France in December, 1918, was brought to his home in West Newton on Monday of this week. Tuesday morning it was taken to the state armory on Washington street where it laid in state, guarded by a detail of men from Co. H, until yesterday afternoon when it was taken to his former home, 44亨街, West Newton. This morning following prayers at the house the body was taken to St. Bernard's church, West Newton, where the formal services were held. (An account of this service will be given in our next issue.)

Mr. Reinhalter was a popular member of his company and regiment. He was a veteran of the Mexican Border campaign in 1916 serving as a bugler in Company C, 5th Mass. Infantry. When the 5th and 9th Infantry were merged at Framingham in 1917, he was transferred to the new unit, the 101st U. S. Infantry. With that organization he sailed for France in September, 1917, and served in every engagement with the 26th Division up to the Armistice. Less than a month after the cessation of hostilities, he was taken ill with pneumonia, contracted from exposure during the last battle in the Argonne, and he died a few days later in a base hospital.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION

The Masonic rooms in the Masonic building at Newtonville were filled to the limit on Tuesday evening when the recently elected officers of Dalhouse Lodge of Masons were publicly installed. The ceremonies were in charge of Wor. Bro. Fred M. Blanchard, as installing officer assisted by Wor. Bro. Charles H. Clark as marshal.

An unusual feature of the evening was the presentation to the retiring secretary Wor. Bro. Edwin C. Wyatt of a handsome easy chair. The presentation being made by the retiring master Wor. Bro. R. D. Diggs, who was himself presented with a past master's jewel by Wor. Bro. Blanchard and with a past master's apron by the new Master, William A. Richardson.

The officers installed were WM. William A. Richardson, SW, William L. Graves, JW, Robert E. Hills, treas., Frederick S. Fairchild, secretary, Robert D. Diggs, Jr., chaplain, Rev. Dr. Chas. R. Ross, SD, George E. Rushforth, JD, Thomas F. Lyons, SS, Harrison Hyslop, JS, Henry A. Heath, IS, Carl C. Davis, Organist, Kenneth H. Usher, Tyler, E. E. Snyder, marshal, Don M. Leonard.

Following the installation ceremonies there was dancing and refreshments in Temple hall.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

A study of the roll calls held during the session shows how each representative from Newton voted on the various matters deemed important enough for a roll call, viz

On the bill to allow counties to pay its employees who served in the world war, the difference between the pay they received from the Federal government and what they would have received had they remained in the service of the county, Representative Early and Brimblecom voted in favor. Representative Rice in opposition.

On the bill to pay the $100 bonus to the Yeomen (F), the same division took place.

On the motion to substitute a bill for an adverse report of the committee on further limiting hours of labor, Mr. Early and Mr. Rice voted No, Mr. Brimblecom was not recorded.

On the bill to allow workmen's compensation to begin at an earlier period than is now the law, Mr. Early voted Yes, Mr. Brimblecom No, and Mr. Rice was not recorded.

On the bill to require equal pay for men and women teachers in Boston, Mr. Early and Mr. Rice voted No, Mr. Brimblecom Yes.

On five different roll calls affecting the bill to allow voluntary associations to sue and to be sued, all three Newton representatives voted in favor of the bill.

On the bill to relieve street railways of the excise tax, Mr. Early and Mr. Brimblecom voted Yes, Mr. Rice No.

All three representatives voted together on bills for censorship of moving pictures, to extend the Volstead act Massachusetts, for a state constabulary, against a new commission to apportion the cost of the Springfield bridge and in favor of granting more time to the special committee investigating county institutions.

It is interesting to note that on the last day of the session the House had 14 roll calls on various measures and motions.

Some interesting facts were given the members from Middlesex county at a recent luncheon regarding the military situation in the state. Lt. Col. G. M. Langdon said that the National Guard, which has succeeded the old style militia, is under the control of the Federal government and the entire expense of equipment, sustenance, wages, maintenance and travel is paid by the nation. The state maintains the armories and officers' schools and a few small details. The men are paid $1.65 per day and are required to serve not less than forty-eight nor more than sixty days in each year. The National Guard solves the difficulty experienced in past years where there was no authority to send the men outside the state in one case and outside the country in another.

Another important change in the line of increased efficiency is the method of selecting officers. In former years the officers were elected by ballot of the members of the company. Now applicants for commissions state what kind of service they prefer and are then examined mentally, physically and technically. If qualified, the name is placed on the eligible list, from which appointments are made by the commanding officer and commissions given by the Governor. The appointment, however, must be recognized by the War Department at Washington before it is final.

Massachusetts is authorized to raise a guard of 7942 men, of which 6340 are now in service. We are entitled to five regiments of infantry, three regiments of field artillery, one of cavalry, an ammunition train and some form of air service.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Years ago a noted Spanish explorer went in search of the Fountain of Youth, the waters of which, he thought, could make men young again. He died without finding what he looked for. Yet today we see about us men who seem to have some power of keeping their youth. The naturalist, John Burroughs, though an old man, was young in spirit up to the time of his death; and Thomas Edison, at seventy-four, is still vigorous and capable.

Men of that kind keep young by refusing to knock out work. They have always a few more things that they want to do before they turn over the work to younger hands. That spirit has made them successful. Years ago Edison made himself famous, but he did not stop there, for he realized that no man is successful unless he sets himself a goal and makes headway toward reaching it. If one goal is reached, he must set himself another.

The mere holding of a good job is not success; it is not even worth living for unless we have some ambition beyond it. Just as the airplane begins to fall as soon as it stops going ahead, we begin to slip backward when our ambition no longer urges us forward.

Abraham Lincoln was a man who understood that law. He might have earned food and clothing all his life as a rail splitter; but he was not that kind. He studied everything that he could find which would help him in his work. He studied geometry from start to finish because that subject, he believed, would get him into the habit of thinking logically and of reducing his ideas to simple words which anyone could understand.

This month many boys and girls of our Newton Schools will graduate.

BOY SCOUTS RALLY

12. Attendance points awarded—Won by Troop 2, Wellesley; 2nd by Troop 11, Newton, 3rd by Troop 4.

The final tally of points (not places won) gave to Troop 4 of Newton Highlands, Scoutmaster Frank E. Lichtenhaeler, 43 points; to Troop 2, Wellesley, Scoutmaster Rev. Carl H. Gates, 38 points; and to Troop 11, Newton, Scoutmaster Jerome M. Carley, 36 points.

At the close of the Rally Mr. James A. Stafford, President of the Council, presented the Irwin Silver Cup to Troop 4 of Newton Highlands. This is the second year that Troop 4 has won the cup. To First and Second places of all events, ribbons designating the event and place secured were presented to the winners.

By general consent the Rally was one of the best that Norumbega Council has had, and great credit is due to Scoutmasters, their assistants, and other Scout officials for their hearty co-operation in carrying out the program.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Hyde School

The graduating class has presented the school with a memorial gift of $64.61. From this amount two handsome pictures, "Dawn" and "The Wave," were purchased and placed in the eighth grade class rooms.

On next Tuesday the graduates of the school will be presented with diplomas by Supt. Wheeler.

The graduating class party is to take place next Monday at the school and promises to be a most enjoyable occasion. The officers of the class are: Holmes Whitmore, president; Mildred McDonald, vice-president; Madolin Powell, secretary; Phyllis Logan, treasurer.

Mrs. Harry I. Cook entertained the Kindergarten on Wednesday morning with a picnic at her home on Saxon road.

Miss Grant's sixth grade are completing a bird magazine pertaining to twenty-five of the most important birds found in New England. A paper on some bird has been written by each child and a drawing added.

A magazine entitled "The South American" has been made by Miss Tabor's sixth grade. This was evolved along the lines of a real magazine, containing an advertising section, news items, editorials, poetry, stories, etc.

The teachers and pupils of the school regret very much to lose Miss Marion Little, who leaves us this year to take up work in China in the fall. She will do primary work in St. Hilda's School at Wuchang, China, in the Province of Hunan. We congratulate her upon her opportunity for larger service.

The following pupils have made a perfect attendance record during the school year now closing: 2nd grade, Warren Colby, Wendell Card, Margaret and William McKenna and Catherine Martin; 3rd grade, Mary Brunton, Betty Cudworth, Eugenia Martin, Carroll Stockell; 4th grade, Nancy Ryther, Dorothy True, Albert Hutchinson, Charles Webster, Emmons Brown, John Locke, Jeanne Manning; 5th grade, Robert Bonner, Ruth Litchfield, Francis McKenna, Alan Rust, Margaret Haberstroh; 6th grade, Lucile Leavitt, Freeman Card, Dorothy Jordan, Conrad Gunn, Ruthena Warren; 7th grade, Brandon Bowen; 8th grade, Stuart Hills, Elizabeth Savage, Gertrude Dyer, Howard Pry, Dorothy Rust, and Victoria Williams.

Miss Perkins' room, second grade, made the highest record, having five pupils with perfect attendance. Miss Greene's fourth grade has had no absent nor tardy marks for three months.

Burr School

The graduating class this year is to be combined with the class party. Only parents and invited guests are to be present. The exercises are to be held on Tuesday, June 21, in the Burr School Hall. The class has engaged an entertainer, and there will be dancing and refreshments.

On Tuesday, Dr. Lewis J. Jack gave a talk to the upper classes on the Medical Profession.

EDITORIAL

The decision of the board of aldermen to take no action in regard to the erection of a large knitting mill on land adjoining Cabot park, Newtonville, is most unfortunate, in our opinion, for the future of the city. The problem is admittedly, a hard one to solve, and yet we believe it should have been viewed from the standpoint of 25 years hence, rather than from that of the present day.

There are many elements in the situation which ought not to have been allowed to enter. There have been bad mistakes of judgment on both sides leading to an exorbitant demand for damages by the mill people—a demand which we do not believe would have been allowed by a jury, had the aldermen taken the land under the power of eminent domain.

The failure to adopt a zoning ordinance, and the grant of a permit to connect the proposed factory building with the sewer in Munroe street at a less grade than usual, (this action having been taken about a month ago) place some responsibility on the part of the city government which ought to have been met by accepting the contributions raised by the residents of the vicinity and taking the land for park or playground purposes. With this lesson so well learned, there should be no delay in passing a zoning ordinance so that "it never can happen again."

The action of the board in the Security Mills case is a great disappointment to the officers of the Newtonville and Newton Improvement associations who have worked hard the past week in raising funds for a contribution towards the land damages, if the city was to seize the property. About $6000 had been pledged or underwritten thru the efforts of President Harry D. Cabot, and Albert M. Lyon, M. W. Murray and Frederick Fredericksen of the Newtonville Association and Mr. Herbert G. Pratt and Frederick W. Stone of the Newton Association.

It is a matter of regret that the aldermen could not quite reach a two thirds' vote and pass the gasolinee permit for the Jenney Co. at the corner of Walnut and Beacon street over the veto of the Mayor. With a clear majority of the aldermen, backed by the favorable opinion of the Planning Board and of two village improvement associations, the average citizen will probably believe that the best interests of the city would be secured if the permit had been granted.

The action of the carpenters' union in accepting the reduced rate of 90 cents an hour is most gratifying and leads to the hope that it may be possible in the near future to make some progress towards meeting the pressing need for additional housing.

Congratulations to the Newton Savings Bank on its 90th birthday. It has served the community long and well.

SECOND CHURCH SCHOOL SOCIAL

Tuesday evening the Church School of the Second Church in West Newton had its last young people's social. There were ball games, in which both boys and girls took part, the winning team being the Red Sox, captained by "Bob" Perry.

After the games which were played on the Church Green, the party went into the Entertainment Room where refreshments were served by the members of Miss Helen Hartel's class. The popular "Edmonds' Novelty Orchestra" furnished excellent music for the remainder of the evening. This is the fourth appearance of this team of musicians at these Church School Socials, and all agreed that they were in the finest form ever. Three rousing cheers were given them at the close of the evening.

Among the Church School teachers present were: Mr. Clarke Macomber, Mr. Edgar Crosby, Mr. George Owen, Miss Flossie Owen, Mr. Park, Mr. Lucas. Mr. and Mrs. Crowell were also present.

GIRL SCOUTS

Tuesday, June 7 was a Gala Day for the Newton Girl Scouts. Mrs. Frank A. Day of Newton, Commissioner of the Newton Local Council Girl Scouts gave a lawn party for all the Girl Scouts in the city.

At three in the afternoon the automobiles filled with girls began to arrive and they kept on arriving until about 300 girls were on the grounds.

The girls were given different colored tags as they arrived and later divided up into four groups according to the color of their tags. These groups each played a different game under the leadership of the officers. There was a potato race, a three-legged race, a game of dodge-ball, and a wonderful obstacle race. Each group played for 15 minutes and moved on to the next game.

When the games were over the guests were treated to a first-rate Punch and Judy show which was given by one of the captains. Punch Judy, the policeman and the hangman kept things merry for some time.

Then the Bugle and Drum Corps gave a demonstration under the direction of Drum Major Elizabeth Donovan of Troop 3. This was a splendid performance and the girls played very well.

Next came the awarding of Merit Badges. 74 badges were awarded.

More tests are being given this week and the list of the girls who won the badges will be printed next week.

After these badges were given out the Local Director announced that Troop 5 had won the Banner. The Troops have been working for the banner all this past year. Charts have been kept by each Captain, recording attendance, punctuality, neatness of appearance, and the Troop Spirit of each meeting, besides the Scout work has been counted in. Troops 2 and 5 were very close.

Refreshments were next on the program and all the Scouts enjoyed the ice cream and cakes which made the occasion a "real Party." After giving Mrs. Day a hearty cheer the party broke up and the girls went home most enthusiastic about their wonderful afternoon and splendid time.

WHIDDEN-DIX

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Cobasset, was the scene last Saturday of a most attractive wedding when Miss Marian Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sherman Dix of Boston, was married to Mr. William Bush Whidden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Whidden of West Newton, and a graduate of Williams College. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles C. Wilson, rector of the church.

For her bridal gown Miss Dix wore ivory satin trimmed with lace and made with a full train, over which was draped a long veil of Brussels lace, the welding veil of her great-great-grandmother. Her bridal veil was of lace caught with orange blossoms.

Mrs. Lloyd Nichols of Boston, matron of honor, wore a gown of peony pink organdie with a pink hat, and carried a bouquet of larkspur, peonies, and yellow daisies.

A young niece of the bridegroom, Esther Merchant, of West Newton, was flower girl. She wore a frock of pink and white dotted muslin and carried a basket of Mignon roses and larkspur.

Mr. Malcolm W. Whidden, brother of the groom, was his best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Lloyd Nichols of Boston, Robert Beckett, and Leighton H. Coleman, of New York; Cedric Smith, of East Orange, N. J.; Lockhart McIlveen, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; John J. Radley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Norman Weaver, of West Newton.

A reception took place after the ceremony at the summer home of the bride's parents at Greenbush, the house being artistically decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Whidden are to live in New Bedford.

Hyde School

The championship game of the Junior Baseball League was played on Thursday between the Waban and the Hyde teams. The game was a victory for Hyde team, the score being 11 to 7.

A "Y. W. C. A." for Newton!

A meeting to consider the possibility of starting a Y. W. C. A. in Newton was called by the Woman's Association of Eliot Church on Tuesday, June 14, at 3 o'clock in the Eliot Church parlor. Representatives of the churches of Wards 1 and 7 and of the Social Science and Community Clubs, the Newton Welfare Bureau, the Newton Improvement Association, the Newton Circle, the Pomroy Home, and the Stearns School Centre were present. Mrs. Arthur Holt, President of the Eliot Church Woman's Association, called the meeting to order and was unanimously elected Chairman. Miss Miriam Drury served as temporary secretary.

Mrs. Arthur Kendrick, Chairman of the Special Committee appointed by the Eliot Church Woman's Association to investigate the need for Y. W. C. A. work, reported that in the opinion of her committee, while there is some need for more and better housing accommodations, the need for recreation work is much greater. There should be a recreational centre where girls and young women can go for pleasure and exercise. A group of 30 girls and women are now going into Boston every week for gymnastic work. The committee suggested that a beginning might be made with one room where instruction in physical training might be given and a connecting kitchen where simple meals could be prepared, with the confident expectation that something much larger would grow out of it.

The meeting was then open for discussion, and opinions and ideas were freely exchanged. All seemed convinced that there is great need of a recreational centre, and there were some who felt that the lack of suitable places for girls to live who are away from home is a serious one and should be carefully considered.

Miss Broad, General Secretary of the Boston Y. W. C. A., was present and made many helpful suggestions besides answering various questions.

A continuation meeting to consider this subject further will be held on Monday evening, June 20th, in the Baptist Church at 7:30 P. M.

Two representatives from each of the above-mentioned organizations, and the ministers of the churches have been asked to be present.

Newton Classical High School

The words of this year's Senior Class Ode were written by Donald Leonard and the music by John Dunleavy.

The Seniors nominated the following students to take charge of the distribution of the diplomas on graduation day: Janet Eaton, Martha Carter, Clark Hodder, John Norton, Rufus Wilson.

As a part of their gift to the school, the Seniors voted $150 to the library.

Newton took second place in the suburban league. On Friday at 10:00 A. M. they will play Everett at Clafin Field. This is the last game of the season.

The June issues of the "Review" were given out on Tuesday. Robert Darrell, whose poems and essays have been a decided attraction in both this year's "Review" and "Newtonian" has been appointed editor-in-chief of next year's "Review."

The following teachers are leaving this year: Mr. Homer K. Underwood, Miss Additon, Mr. Lane, and Mr. Vaughan. Mr. Thurber of the Technical High is to be in charge of the English Departments of both schools.

Final examinations for the members of the three lower classes will close on next Wednesday.

Stearns School

Grades seven, the classes of Miss Welch, Miss Eddington, and Miss Stoddard went to Plymouth, June 15.

The trip was made by boat and was much enjoyed by all. All places of historical interest were visited.

Mr. Dacup's eighth grade will make the trip to Provincetown on Thursday.

The Stearns school baseball team has won the championship of the city. The boys are buying suits for the coming season.

A baseball game between the Newton Senior Girls' Club and the Junior Girls' Club was played on Tuesday evening at the Stearns School Field. The Seniors scored 13 runs over the Juniors' three. Donald Masse pitched for the Seniors, and the Juniors were supported by Mary Roy and Eva Masse.

Roger Wolcott School

The School Graduation will be held next Tuesday morning under the Playground Elm.

Grade Seven presented their play, "In Grammar Land," to the graduation class, Monday afternoon. All the members of the class took part in the play, and all listened well to the gavel which Judge Larry Allen wielded so well. Interjection Bobby Anable caused much amusement by his humorous antics. Miss Doran used this method to review the work in the technique of grammar.

Next Tuesday evening, the 1921 Class Party will be held at the home of the Class President, Malcolm Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Crowell are the invited guests.

The Wolcott School baseball nine played the Hyde on Tuesday, but the game was protested by the school.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

The graduating class will receive their diplomas on Wednesday forenoon, June 22. Mayor Childs will present the diplomas. In the evening the class will have a party in the school hall.

The kindergarten children had a lawn party on Tuesday at ten o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Frank Fanning. The grounds were decorated with flags, it being on Flag Day. The children danced around the May pole, sang many of their songs, played games, and had a general good time. Refreshments were served.

A prize volume for the best health work done by the girls of the graduating class in connection with the cooking lessons was awarded to Kath-

NINETY YEARS OF SERVICE TO NEWTON PEOPLE

1831

In 1829 the NEWTON SAVINGS BANK was originated by the Newton Temperance Society and Lyceum. On June 17th, 1831 it was incorporated under Massachusetts Laws, being the sixteenth Savings Bank in the state.

At the annual meeting in 1842 it was voted, "That if it can conveniently be done the funds of this institution be so invested in mortgages that not more than $500.00 at any one time be invested in any other way."

From that day to this the Newton Savings Bank has been a real factor in the growth of the community, and has at the present time over $2,765,000, invested in mortgages on Newton property alone.

The State law now allows Savings Banks to invest not more than 70% of their deposits in mortgages. At the present time this bank has approximately 60% of its deposits so invested.

The dividend rate has always been the highest rate consistent with safety. Beginning in 1829 on a four per cent. basis the surplus earnings were divided each fifth year among the depositors. In 1834 an extra dividend of 10% was declared. In 1839, 15% extra. In 1844, 10% extra. In 1849, 10% extra. In 1854, 17½% extra. Since 1917 our dividend rate has been 4½%.

The growth of deposits reflects the growth of our city. In 1830 the bank had deposits of $278. In 1860, $20,500. In 1875, $400,000. In 1882, $1,000,000. In 1892, $2,000,000. In 1906, $6,000,000, and in 1921, $8,115,000.

The Newton Savings Bank is proud of the intimate place it has in the life of this community. As it enters the last decade in a century of service it hopes to have the privilege of serving a constantly widening circle of depositors.

REAL ESTATE

Alvord Bros. report the sale of two-family house and 9,270 sq. ft. of property numbered 4-6 Baldwin corner Elmwood Sts., Newton, consisting of a two-family frame house and 9,270 sq. ft. of land, valued at $6,000; heirs of C. A. Heppen deeded to Edith M. Wells. Papers have passed from Neil McIntosh to the Charles River Country Club of the 25 acres of land on Winchester street running to the Charles River in the Oak Hill section of Newton. This tract has about 600 feet frontage on Winchester street and about 600 feet on the river, and about 1,700 feet on Wallace street.

The transaction was negotiated through the office of Alvord Brothers. Edmunds & Byfield report the sale of a lot of land at the corner of Franklin and Nonantum streets, Newton, on Farlow Hill, for Farlow Hill Land Trust, to Marion J. Young of Newton. The lot contains 15,500 square feet, and is valued at $4,500. Mrs. Young intends to erect a dwelling for her own occupancy.

The same brokers report the sale of two lots of land on Shorncliffe Road, Newton, for Lewis H. Farlow, of Pasadena, California, to Fred A. Hawkins, of Newton. Mr. Hawkins will erect a brick dwelling immediately.

"AMONG THE NEW BOOKS"

"Among the New Books" is the heading used by the Springfield Library for some of the more worth while books. Among some of their recent reviews are the following:

HERBERT HOOVER—Among the men whom the World War brought into popular notice none has aroused a wider interest than Herbert Hoover. Mr. Hoover's professional reputation was made long before, but the average person knows little of mining engineers, however eminent they may be in their own field. There is an element of romance in the work of an engineer; he is liable to travel in strange regions and do to unusual things. Mr. Hoover has had experiences in remote parts of the world—Australia, China, Burma—and all of these lend color to the story of his life as told by Rose Wilder Lane in "The Making of Herbert Hoover." It is a story such as we like to think typical of America, that of the boy without wealth or influence, but endowed with ideals, energy, and determination, who works his way through college and goes out to conquer the world—and succeeds. There is the happy character-forming childhood in the quiet Quaker home; the four years at Stanford University, learning not only from books but from teachers and students; then the beginning of the mining career that had from the first attracted him. So young was he when he first held important positions that real effort was needed to conceal the fact. His genius for organization proved so valuable that his business life was a series of successes, one important post succeeding another as his fame spread. He had an exciting time in China during the Boxer uprising. It seems prophetic of his future activities that when Tien-Tsien was besieged he should have taken charge of the scanty food supply, gathering up all that was available and rationing it. Not all Americans realize at what a personal sacrifice Mr. Hoover took charge of the relief work for Belgium, or appreciate its extent and intricacy.

In spite of his being so quiet and unassuming, Mr. Hoover has many of the qualities of a popular hero, and these are well brought out in his life, which reads more like a tale of romantic fiction than sober fact.

(EHT697-I.)

FOR AN IDLE HOUR—A pleasant companion for an idle hour is "Adventures and Enthusiasm," by E. V. Lucas. These little essays—most of them are only three or four pages long—seem just chance thoughts and fancies such as might occur to an active mind looking out at a world which is "full of a number of things." The art, of course, is in the style; and a most attractive and friendly style it is. Lucas takes the reader into his confidence and shares with him small adventures, passing impressions, likes and dislikes. He considers the qualities of the perfect guest, the disadvantages of possessions, why ferrymen are not cheerful, and the sad lot of porters, who while helping others to travel, cannot go for a holiday themselves. He discourses delightfully on Hans Christian Anderson, whom he considers the true Wizard of the North. He tells of quaint old publications that he has stumbled upon and particularly of one, "The elegant girl." In spite of its title this book, which was published in 1813, was intended for the improvement of the young as is shown by its subtitle, "Virtuous principles the true source of elegant manners." It was illustrated by series of plates which so seized upon Mr. Lucas's fancy that he has reproduced them in this volume. His humorous depiction of telephone trials will awaken a responsive echo. "If ever a fairy godmother appeared to me (but after all these years of postponement I can hardly hope for her) with the usual offer of a granted wish," should think long before I hit upon anything better to ask for than the restoration of all the time I had spent with my own telephone at my ear waiting to be answered. The ordinary delays can be long enough, but for true foreastes of eternity you must sit at the instrument while some one is being fetched from a distant part of the building. This is a foreaste not only of eternity but of perdition, for there is nothing to do; and to have nothing to do is to be damned. If you had a book by you, you could not read it, for your thoughts are not free to wander; all that you are mentally capable of is to speculate on the progress of the messenger to the person who is wanted, and the probable stages of his journey to the receiver. In this employment, minutes, hours, days, weeks even, seem to drag their reluctant length along." Y-L62a

Newton Free Library.

ANNUAL RECITAL

The annual recital of the elocution pupils of Edith Tupper Maxim was given last Monday evening in Channing Church, Newton. The proceeds were presented to the shell shocked soldiers.

The program was novel in selection and presentation, the outstanding feature being, "Uncle Sam's Young Army," and "Columbia." Mrs. Maxim deserved the unanimous and enthusiastic commendation that she received at the close for the wonderful work she exhibited.

She had a wide and varied experience, the most notable being perhaps her connection with the "Comédie Française" in Paris. Her appearance and the performance of her pupils are the chief social and artistic event in whatever place they occur.

The incidental music of the program was rendered by the pupils of Professor Geo. Pratt Maxim of the Faellen Pi-anoforte School, and reflected much credit on the teacher.

Among those taking part were Virginia Slokes, Margarita Barba, Mabel Williamson, Julia Goss Jones, William Cronin, Jr., Myrtle Cooper, Mary Robert, Elizabeth Scofield, Albert Graham, Dorothy Barba, Sylvia Parks, Frances Gotshall, Anna Bartlett, Albert Graham, Elizabeth Pitts, Alice Williamson, of hot water. When almost cold, add a teaspoonful of ammonia. When ready to wash or scrub the carpet, put a little ether into the mixture. Keep it well corked and add half a cupful of the mixture to a large pailful of tepid water. It makes a powerful lather.

Wipe the carpet off with clear water.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

(Held over from last week)

The Roger Wolcott School

The Eighth Grade Class Party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Meissner, the mother of Gardner and John Meissner, both members of the graduating class. Miss Doran, Mrs. Forbes, and Mr. and Mrs. Crowell were invited guests.

The School Baseball Nine by defeating the Emerson School is now tied for first place with the Hyde and Burr Schools. The game with the Burr School is scheduled for this week and will be played on neutral ground. Payson Jones has been chosen as umpire.

Plans are under way for graduation, which it is expected will be held in the new building auditorium.

Scores of professional folk interested in school buildings of the more modern type have visited our new building in the past week.

Stearns School

The attendance report for May shows Miss Keyes's fifth grade the highest of the grammar grades with a per cent of 97.4, and Miss Stewart's first grade with 98.3 the highest of the primaries.

The Mothers' Club held a June outing at Norumbega Park on Wednesday evening, June 8th. A special car was chartered for the members, who left the school at 6:30 P. M. and attended the vaudeville performance at 8 o'clock. Refreshments were served at the park.

The Stearns School branch of the West Newton Music School held its recital in the school hall on Thursday evening, June 9th. Piano and violin selections were given by the pupils of the school under the direction of Miss Edith Rae, Miss Irene Forte and Mrs. Woodberry.

The baseball team won a very hard game from the Horace Mann boys Thursday afternoon on Victory Field by the score of 9-7. It was the most exciting and best game of the season.

Full returns from the minstrel show of the eighth grade are completed and a report has been made of a balance of $156.15, which is much beyond expectations. The class has voted $100 of this sum to be expended for uniforming our successful champion baseball team. The remainder of the money will be spent on an excursion to Provincetown next Thursday, June 16, by the members of the class.

A special convertible truck and passenger body for a Ford automobile is being constructed in the Manual Training department under the supervision of Mr. Holman. When finished, it will carry a patrol of eight Boy Scouts and their equipment to their camping grounds, either in "The Ohio" or to the new grounds at Hardy's Pond in Waltham.

Lawrence Baccarri is completing an oak library table, and other boys are engaged in making a dozen window screens for the portable building, while still others are making repairs on school furniture and equipment.

Miss Walker's fourth grade took a geography trip to Boston Tuesday. Many places of interest were visited.

The Fessenden School

On Saturday, June 4th, the annual recital by the music pupils of the Fessenden School took place at the school. The concert included selections by the mandolin orchestra and the choral club, besides solos, both vocal and instrumental.

The class dinner of the graduating class was held on Monday night.

The prize speaking contest was held on Tuesday night at the school, prizes being awarded to George A. Eddy of Newtonville and to Edward S. Morris of Philadelphia and to Erwin H. Steif of New York. The judges were Mrs. W. C. Boyden of Newtonville, Mrs. S. Giles of Newtonville and William T. Barbour of Detroit.

On Wednesday occurred the graduating exercises with the announcement of the prizes. The address of the day was delivered by Rev. Huber Gray Buehler, M. A., Litt., headmaster of the Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, Conn. Diplomas were awarded by the headmaster, Frederick J. Fessenden, to twenty-nine graduates, among whom were Percy F. Williams, Jr., of West Newton, and George A. Eddy of Newtonville. The latter was one of the students on the third honor list, and head of the 7th form.

Bigelow School

Last Saturday morning Mr. Lane and Miss Dyer took a party from the Eighth Grade to visit the battleship Utah at the Charlestown Navy Yard. Miss Nixon and a delegation from the Seventh Grade went also. Commander Bruce Ware, a former Bigelow school boy, welcomed the visitors, and gave them every facility for seeing the ship.

The class having highest attendance for the past four weeks is Miss Coyle's, their average being 98.1 per cent.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

The prizes for the best written compositions on the Service Flag were awarded to Carleton Redman, grade seven and Margaret Osborne, grade eight.

The base ball team lost the last two games of the season, one to the Walcott School and one to the Hyde School.

The seventh grade had an interesting illustrated lecture on Switzerland from Miss Bassett on Wednesday afternoon.

The class picture was taken on Thursday morning by our local photographer, Mr. Hemphill.

The Kindergarten children visited Franklin Park on Wednesday morning. Automobiles were loaned by Mrs. H. L. Felton, Mrs. A. C. Blunt, Jr., Mrs. Maynard C. Hutchinson, and Mrs. Leon B. Roges, all of West Newton; by Mrs. H. Belden Sly, Mrs. E. P. Crave, and Miss Helen Shelton of Newtonville; by Miss Louise Sherman of Newton and by Mrs. Thomas W. Aiken of Newton Upper Falls. Fifty-two children enjoyed the visit to the bears' den, the animal house, the elephants, and the birds. Our thanks are due to all those who so generously gave of their time that the little folks might have this great treat.

HEALTH EDUCATION

The following address was given recently by Miss Mabel Bragg, assistant superintendent of schools of this city before the Woman's Guild of the Second Church, West Newton.

One of the most important results of the recent investigation into the physical condition of all the people is the fact that health education has been very much neglected. Children have been allowed to grow to maturity with little attention to those remedial measures, which taken in season and consistently followed will produce strong healthy men and women.

This situation has been brought home to the people of this country so clearly that a nation wide movement has been inaugurated to stimulate a general health campaign. National, state, and local associations, as well as state and federal governments are cooperating in working out this problem.

In most places the school and the home are working hand in hand to the end that children may be trained not only in the knowledge of health conditions but that permanent health habits may be established.

The worth of any educational process is to be measured by its product. Health teaching in the school is successful to the degree that it conserves and promotes the health of the school child. The mere acquisition of information, no matter how important it may be, is worthless unless it leads to hygienic habits of living, a reserve of energy, mental poise and all the other conditions involving happy robust health. This means that children who enter school in first class health should retain it, and those who are not in good condition should improve steadily so that at the end of every child's school career he may be as nearly perfectly physically fit as possible. Such an achievement would contribute most effectively to the learning processes of the school. It would save much time and add to the happiness, efficiency and prosperity of the individual citizen, the home and the nation.

Some of the best work in our schools this year has been done along the line of Health Education. The teachers have done a splendid piece of constructive work and are doing much to demonstrate the truth that better physical development is needed and can be secured, on which to build for a finer, stronger mental development.

The following program has constituted the essential elements for work in the grades, the use of each agency varying somewhat according to the age of the children and the angle of attack.

- Measuring and weighing.
- Co-operation from school physician and nurse, parents, dentists, and family physicians.
- Teaching health habits.

Rules of the Game of the Child Health Organization

- A full bath more than once a week.
- Brushing the teeth at least once every day.
- Sleeping long hours with windows open.
- Drinking as much milk as possible, but no coffee or tea.
- Eating some vegetables or fruit every day.
- Drinking at least four glasses of water a day.
- Playing part of every day out of doors.
- A bowel movement every morning.

IV. School luncheon for educational and nutritional purposes.

V. Special health classes for seriously under-weight children.

VI. Co-operation from physical training teachers.

VII. Expression in school work through songs, posters, games, language, dramatization, drawing, construction work, and arithmetic.

VIII. A study of foods and health habits in the cooking classes.

Weight cards have been sent home each month and many parents have been glad to be informed of the physical progress of their children as indicated by gain in weight. Many parents have given hearty co-operation and have expressed cordial appreciation of this work of the teachers. Positive health teaching is presented.

All are encouraged through the influence of the group in the formation of fundamental habits of health. The school is co-operating as never before with the parents and helping to intensify the habits already begun in the homes.

The introduction of the mid-morning lunch has been general throughout the city for both educational and nutritional purposes. Both teachers and parents have observed with satisfaction that children who refused to drink milk at home wished to join the luncheon at school and that they gradually learn to drink milk with the others.

It is only recently that people have begun to realize the educational value of the mid-morning lunch. The majority of the children have milk and crackers, others bring apples, and the remaining few at least have a short rest time which will add to their working power. The children's capacity for work is greatly increased by the luncheon and so valuable time is added to every day.

School subjects have been vitalized and thought content furnished for many other school problems by the health work. With this interesting material better response and results can be secured in language, drawing, arithmetic, civics, and reading. It furnishes one way of illuminating fundamental school subjects and makes them vital in the life of the children.

The cooking classes have been included in the health program. The program for the classes in cooking in the seventh and eighth grades has been based on a study of foods that are good for children, and training in the preparation of such foods. Each girl has been working to bring herself at least up to the average weight for her height and age and has also been interested in the progress of the younger children in her family, helping them to form the right kind of health habits. The results in the improvement of the seventh and eighth grade girls have been remarkable. Some interesting charts have been made to show the gain and many of the girls have caught the spirit of success in health.

For children who have had need of individual attention special health classes, or nutrition clinics, have been held, one in the Stearns School, at Nonantum, and one in the Day Nursery in West Newton. These have been possible through the co-operation of the Health Committee of the Welfare Bureau in dispensing the Christmas Seal money as a part of its program of preventive work. They were very fortunate in securing Gertrude T. Herrick as nurse to work with the doctors in charge and carry the instruction into the homes in co-operation with Sara C. Schlechter of the Stearns School Center. Much appreciation is due Dr. Bowers of Newton Highlands, and Dr. Drayimble, who have so freely and generously given their time and interest to the children in these classes.

We quote the following from a pamphlet soon to be published by the United States Government:

"Every pupil on leaving the elementary school should be as carefully trained in the fundamental habits of health as in the three R's. Without the first the others are of little value."

The real test of health education in the schools is in the health of the children. If there were excellent classroom teaching of health from the kindergarten to the high school, and these were properly supported by co-ordinated activities of school physician, school nurse, parents, teachers, and all others playing a part in the training of children, what ought we to expect? This is difficult to say because the experiment has never been tried consecutively for eight or nine years with the same children. Perhaps some day the time will come when the great majority of children, possibly eighty or ninety per cent of them, may reach a general standard something like this:

1. All children are well nourished, none more than 10 per cent below the required standard of weight according to height and age.

2. Habits of personal cleanliness.

3. Freedom from disease and physical defects.

4. Excellent sitting, standing, and walking posture.

5. All teeth clean.

6. No decayed teeth.

7. Permanent teeth all present and in good condition.

8. Habits of regular recreation in the open air.

9. Habit of daily evacuation of the bowels.

10. Practical health knowledge that works.

11. Freedom from vermin (lice, etc.)

12. Cheerfulness of spirit.

13. A civic spirit of helpfulness in relation to the solution of school, home, and community problems in hygiene.

The goal may seem Utopian, but it is just as practicable and possible as it is to apply the scientific rules of agriculture and grow 125 bushels of corn from an acre of land that formerly produced only 40 bushels. A few have dabbled with the health education of children, but they have done very little along the lines of a co-ordinated and humanly scientific program for the health education of the school child. Utopian as our goal may seem, many practical people have the vision and are dedicating their lives to its realization.

Respectfully submitted,

MABEL C. BRAGG,
Assistant Superintendent.

AMERICANIZATION

Newton has just completed her first year of Americanization work. Americanization is the process of making good intelligent American citizens of both native born and foreign born. Many of the citizens of Newton are likely to think that here in our own beautiful city we have no Americanization problem. But according to the last census more than twenty five percent of the population is foreign born and twenty six nationalities are represented. One Italian leader has said that one in every eight persons in Newton is an Italian.

In 1919 the Legislature passed an act to promote Americanization through education of adult persons unable to speak the English language. Cities and towns conducting such educational work in conjunction with the State Board of Education, are entitled to reimbursement, one half the sum expended by them in carrying out this work.

Acting under this law the School Department of Newton appointed Mr. Michael W. Murray, Director of Americanization and the work started. In November, 1920, Miss Calista Roy was chosen supervisor to give full time to the work. The year has been one of study of the problem and organization of classes for the study of the English language as a common medium of speech, always bearing in mind that the teaching of the ideals and principles of the American Democracy is the ultimate aim of all the teaching.

Classes have been organized in Newton Upper Falls, West Newton, Newton Centre and Nonantum, as well as in the regular evening school which was held in Newtonville. Two hundred men and women have been reached in this way: one hundred and fifty having received certificates of accomplishment issued by the State Department of University Extension and by the Newton School Department. Fifteen teachers have been employed:—Miss Mary Higgins, Miss Anna Higgins, Miss Annis M. Sturgis and Miss Marian E. Green at Newton Upper Falls; Miss Marion E. Remon and Miss Carolyn Childs at

INDIANS ALL OF SAME RACE

Differences in Type No Greater Than Among the Whites, According to Scientist.

The American aborigines from the Hudson bay and Alaska to the southern tip of the continent are all members of the same race, according to Dr. Frederick Monsen of New York and Pasadena, said to be more familiar with the American Indian than any other white man.

Doctor Monsen declared the differences in type found in Indians of the various parts of the continent are becoming manifest among us today. He recognizes people from Maine as typical of that section of the country, and says a southerner or westerner can be easily distinguished by one familiar with the types of American people.

"The aborigines of America are all red men," Doctor Monsen said. "The Eskimos have flatter noses and oily skins, due to their diet and the climate."

He found corresponding differences among the Indians of the Eastern coast, the West, Mexico and other parts of the country, but other indications prove the distinguishing characteristics were the product of food, environment and methods of living.

Mentioning the treatment the red men have received from the whites, Doctor Monsen said: "The Pilgrims debarked on Plymouth rock and fell upon their knees. Then they fell upon the aborigines and we've been falling on them ever since."

RULER HAD PRACTICAL MIND

Like Our Own Politicians, Sultan Preferred Any Eventuality to Being Forgotten.

At Trengganu (Malay Peninsula) the native sultan welcomed me and I spent several days with him, telling him what was happening in the world and discussing his problems. The problems were largely financial. He owed some money, and knowing that he had something in the treasury, I asked why he did not pay his debts.

He thought for a time and then replied: "Well, I'll tell you. If I pay those people, they will forget about the sultan of Trengganu. If I don't pay them, they'll never forget me."

The conversation turned to the subject of prisoners. On my way to the palace I had passed the cages where the prisoners were kept. Many of them were starving to death, for unless their friends or family cared for them they got no food.

"Why don't you feed them?" I asked.

"Why should I?" he replied. "If I feed them, my whole country will want to go to jail!"—Asia Magazine.

Point of Honor.

Samuel Untermyer, the brilliant New York lawyer, who probed the building question, said in a discussion about honor:

"Business men are honorable; or they don't get on. Even big business men are honorable. Of course, few business men are as punctilious about a point of honor, though, as Honest John Jones was."

"Honest John Jones, you know, once stole on tiptoe, fountain pen in hand, into the empty waiting room of his hotel. He stepped stealthily up to an inkwell, advanced his fountain pen towards the ink, then drew back with a start.

"'No!' he groaned, striking his brow with his palm. 'No, I cannot fill my fountain pen with the hotel's ink—it would not be honorable!'

War of Science on Diseases.

Of the diseases of men and animals known to be infectious, Dr. Walter E. King counts up 38 having organisms not yet discovered that are believed to be so small as to pass through the customary filters. These include chickenpox, rabies, dengue fever, small-pox, trachoma, measles, poliomyelitis, scarlet fever, typhus and mumps, and yellow fever was in the list until Doctor Noguchi's recent discovery of the organism. As in the case of tuberculosis, knowledge of the organism does not always bring a direct remedy. On the other hand, steps toward eradicating yellow fever, through the destruction of the germ-carrying mosquito, were made possible while the disease organism was still unknown.

Wireless Waves Fire Oil Wells.
In recent years there have been a number of oil well fires the origin of which has never been explained. The fires started at such times when the sites were deserted and could not have been done through any human agency, and in this connection R. M. McLain of Desdemona, Tex., has come to the fore with a remarkable theory that the firing is done by wireless waves gathered by the metal entering into the construction of the derricks. This gentleman has observed a number of oil well fires which could be explained in no other way.

Reassurance.

"Look here," demanded the new patron of the Dizzy Hour lunchroom. "When do I get that order?"

"Control yourself," snapped Romeo the waiter. "The cooks are on strike, but I think they'll come to an agreement 'most any hour now,'"—American Legion Weekly.

Probably Not Overdressed.
"But that woman in the box seems to have no clothes on at all!"

"Ah, yes; she's the best-dressed woman in Paris.—Le Journal Amusant (Paris).

PUT ONE OVER ON BUTCHER

Incident Proves That Art of Shopping Has Not Been Altogether Thrown in Discard.

A dignified-looking woman stepped up to a showcase in the meat market, and after she had bought several pieces of meat, she asked:

"Have you any shinbone that I could use for soup stock?"

"Just the thing," responded the obliging clerk as he took up a long shinbone and knuckle and balanced it on his left hand.

"What is it worth?" asked the woman.

"Just a half-dollar," said he.

"It is such a large piece, would you mind cutting it at the joint?"

"Sure, I will," he replied.

After cutting off the large knuckle he again balanced the long, slim shinbone on his hand and said:

"You may have this for 40 cents."

The woman looked at the piece for a moment, then at the knuckle and said:

"Is that piece you cut off worth only 10 cents?"

The clerk hesitatingly replied:

"Yes, madam."

"All right," said the woman. "I'll take that knuckle."

The clerk waited a moment, looked at the woman, then actually laughed aloud. But he was game and willingly wrapped up the 10-cent soup bone.

NO WONDER THEY LAUGHED

American Soldier in Paris Had Made a Small Mistake in Copying the Street Name.

During the war, while I was on leave of absence in Paris, relates a returned soldier, I decided to take a walk alone. I thought it advisable to copy down the name of the street in which I was staying, so I wrote down some words printed on the sidewalk.

When I was ready to return I found that I could not locate the street where my hotel was, so I approached a woman, showed her what I had written in my book, and tried to learn from her where the place was. She laughed and said something in French, which, of course, I did not understand, and passed on. A number of times I did the same thing, and every time I stopped laughing, and passed on until a man said in English, "What is your want?"

Delighted to find that I had discovered one person who spoke English, I asked, "That is the name of the street where I am staying, and I am lost. Will you please direct me?"

"You haven't written down a street name," said the man, "but 'post no bills.'"

Skidding Is Overcome.

Attention is called in a circular report from Sydney, Australia, to a new invention of a front-drive vehicle which entirely prevents skidding. A test over 16,000 miles of rough road has been made, it is claimed, with no signs of wear. The front wheels are pivoted in the center, which enables the steering of the car with much greater ease than in the rear-wheel-driven machine. The device is now attached to an old worn British car which, prior to the attachment of the device, weighed 32 cwt., with a speed of thirty-eight miles an hour traveling fifteen miles on one gallon of gasoline. After alteration and application of the front drive device, the car weighs 35 cwt., has a speed of forty-five miles an hour and will go seventeen and one-half miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

Tuberculosis in France.

That of 368 antituberculosis dispensaries in France only ten per cent are situated in Paris was hailed as a "happy omen" at the second international conference. Only a few organizations were actively engaged in antituberculosis work in France before the war. Today, largely through the activity of the Rockefeller Foundation, in addition to the dispensaries mentioned, there are 10,000 sanitarium beds for tuberculous patients; many hospitals have provided isolation wards; the boarding out of anaemic children in rural homes has been organized on a large scale, and there is national co-operation of all the agencies concerned.

British Soldiers and New Roads.

Some seven and a half million dollars' worth of new road construction has been taken in hand by various British cities to provide work for the unemployed. According to a report of the British information service of the Bankers' Trust company, the ministry of transportation contributes one-half of the cost—probably out of funds accumulated for that purpose for many years by the development commission—and lends to the municipalities the other half for five years, repayable in annual installments. Ex-service men, after due registration at a labor exchange, receive preference among applicants.

Unquestioning Admirer.

"Are you an admirer of Jeffersonian simplicity?"

"I am," replied Senator Sorghum.

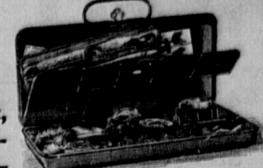

"I don't know exactly what it is, but I admire anything that can command so much public approval and political influence."

Calumny in the Calendar.

"Do you regard Friday as an unlucky day?"

"Most assuredly any day with such a bad reputation is unlucky, whether it deserves it or not."

ENJOYABLE PUPILS' RECITAL

VETERANS ARE GRATEFUL

The third annual recital given by the piano pupils of the Misses Mae and Mina Cotton occurred on Tuesday evening, June 14, at the Central Church, Newtonville.

The 1921 class is a very large one; although many of the older pupils preferred not to take part this year, about 30 appeared on the program, making a goodly showing. Among them there were half a dozen or more very little ones not more than six or seven years old; the very youngest, Phyllis Stafford, is only five and a half. These very little ones do wonderfully well, seeming to come happily to the piano to do their part without fear or self consciousness, and to be anxious only to show what careful, intelligent foundation their young teachers seek to lay so far as real music later.

Almost at the beginning of the program the hearer realized that even the little beginners were expressing a clear musical idea and doing it well. If the little fingers stumbled at times, it seemed the natural thing to begin over again without awkwardness or self consciousness, the important idea being, evidently, to show they had been well taught, and that they in turn had been well taught.

Brilliance, smoothness, and ease, together with nicely of shading marked the playing of the older pupils, thus holding up the more finished product as an incentive and ambition to those not so far along the road.

Miss Carolyn McClellan gave a couple of readings, which were admirably done. Her playing later was confident and well balanced and again gave pleasure to the audience.

Those taking part in the program were Jane Peirce, Betty Richardson, Sabra Ericson, Phyllis Stafford, Mary Goodey, Ruth Greenberg, Donald Spence, Eleanor Bolster, Donald Fowler, Lucy R. Parker, Howard Higgins, Lois Stafford, Clifford Moir, Ruth Loud, Carolyn McClellan, Catherine Hodges, Ruth Green, Katherine Murphy, Catherine Peirce, Donald McPherson, Marion Lyons, Elizabeth Edwards, Marion Pritchard, Mary Coleman, Isabella Evans, Marjorie Bolster, Norman Thomas, Samuel Moore, Martha Willson, and Katherine Cooper.

HELP PUEBLO

$500,000 are urgently needed as a bare minimum sum to do most necessary relief and rehabilitation work in the City of Pueblo, according to conservative and careful estimate.

More than fifteen hundred families already have been listed by the Red Cross census as being in need of help. Many of these have lost all they possess. These families represent an approximate total of seven thousand persons and the census is not yet complete. Hundreds of dealers, large and small, have been paralyzed by the flood which completely wiped out their stocks and ruined the buildings in which they were housed. The damage is estimated at fifteen million and twenty-five million, exclusive of loss to municipal highways and railroad property. The flood victims must be helped to regain normal economic existence before the city can return to its position as a self-supporting community.

Upon invitation of the Governor of Colorado and the City of Pueblo, the American Red Cross has undertaken the task of rehabilitation and is in charge of all relief work.

Citizens of Newton who desire to contribute for the relief of the terrible suffering due to the floods in Colorado are asked to send their contributions to John W. Estabrook, Treasurer, Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, 306 Walnut street, Newtonville, Mass.

Any funds received will be forwarded promptly and immediately made available for the sufferers in the stricken territory.

NORUMBEGA PARK

Norumbega Park's popularity seems to gain as the season approaches the usual summer temperature. The many attractions offered this season are far superior to anything ever before attempted at this popular park resort.

The stage shows offered in the theatre of steel compare favorably with those presented throughout the high-class theatres of the country, and are booked through the B. F. Keith booking offices. The vaudeville show for the coming week is comprised of four select sets of vaudeville, which have occupied prominent positions on the high-class vaudeville bills in the largest cities. Samayoa, the sensational rope twirler, who has been imitated, but seldom equalled, in these clever feats; the Prince Ilma Trio, a harmony operatic trio; the Deano Sisters and Thibault, dancers a la carte; Jones and Kerville, comedians. The big feature picture for the first three days will be "The Barbarian," featuring Jane Novak and Monroe Salisbury. For the last three days will be seen the celebrated Cosmopolitan production, "Proxies," featuring Zena Keefe.

VACATION WEEK

The Directors of the Newton Vacation Week return sincere thanks to all who have so generously contributed to the work of summer cheer. Money sufficient for the months of June and July, has already been received, and one hundred dollars more will enable them to provide in August for the most urgent of the cases brought to their notice. The loan of an automobile an hour or two each week would enable them to give untold happiness to some invalids and aged people to whom an auto ride is a rare luxury. Offers for automobiles may be addressed to 89 Walnut Park, Newton.

Newton

The marriage is announced of Miss Cora C. Milliken and Mr. Harry A. Phelps, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters on June 15th.

The graduation of the School of Our Lady takes place next Sunday afternoon with solemn vespers at 3 o'clock in the church.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Interesting Graduation Exercises held Saturday Afternoon at Newtonville

The graduation exercises of the Classical High School took place last Saturday afternoon in High School Hall. One hundred and six students received diplomas, which were presented to them by Mayor Edwin O. Childs.

The program opened with a salute to the flag and an anthem by the class, after which Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle of the Newton Centre Baptist Church offered prayer. The class oration, "The Quest," was given by Roger Cummings, and the class history by Sylvia Chapman, an oration called "Pilgrim Ideals in Modern Life" was given by Donald B. Fleming, while the valedictory, "Pilgrim Mothers," was given by Catherine B. Jones. The musical numbers included piano solos by Elizabeth A. Burnham, vocal selections by Florence Owen and the singing of the class ode, the words of which were written by Donald W. Leonard and the music by John J. Dunleavy.

The most important event of the afternoon was the announcement concerning the senior cups. The names of the two seniors, one a boy and the other a girl, who have been pre-eminently distinguished throughout the four years for their loyalty, scholarship, personality and elements of democracy, are inscribed on cups which remain with the school, while smaller cups are given to the winners.

The first cup, given by Mrs. George M. Angier in memory of her son, was won by Frederick Newton Blodgett, captain of the baseball team, and the second cup, given by Mrs. John N. Eaton in memory of her father, was won by Miss Florence Owen. The cups were presented by the Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church, West Newton.

Raymond Leonard won the M. I. T. scholarship prize given by George H. May, while Doris Fales and Faith

SAVE MONEY WITH US!

Ours is the best plan ever devised for the Safe and Profitable investment and accumulation of money. The bank is under State Supervision and is a mutual institution. More important even than the money saved is the habit of Regular Saving acquired by the exacting of fixed monthly deposits.

For 33 years we have paid 5 3/4% dividends compounded quarterly. Deposits go on interest immediately. This rate is higher than usually obtains in other kinds of banks.

You may start with almost any amount from $1 up to several thousand dollars, represented by from 1 to 40 shares on which you deposit $1.00 per month for each share held. If you continue until the amount deposited plus interest equals $200 a share you can then withdraw the money or leave it in the bank where it will continue to earn interest. MILITARY FUNERAL

Impressive Services at Burial of Bugler Earl J. Reinharter of West Newton

Bugler Earl J. Reinharter, formerly of Company C, 101st Infantry, A. E. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Reinharter of 44 Henshaw street, West Newton, was laid to final rest in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham last Friday, following the most impressive military funeral held in the city of Newton in several years.

Members of his old organization, a delegation from Newton Post of the American Legion, city officials, and hundreds of friends paid final tribute to the memory of the departed soldier by their attendance at the services held in St. Bernard's Church at 9.30 and at the closing services held at the grave. The popularity of the veteran was manifested in the appearance of many of his old "buddies" of the 101st from other cities and towns in Greater Boston, all of whom wished to pay their last respects to the memory of their friend.

At 8.30 the funeral cortege formed in front of the Reinharter home. A platoon from Company H, 9th Infantry, commanded by 1st Sgt. William M. Breen, fully armed, acting as escort to the veterans in the column, took its place at the head. The American Legion delegation, commanded by Lt. Michael P. Daly followed in rear of the National Guardsmen. The colors of the Post, in charge of Edward Dungan, Sergeant-at-Arms, followed the Legion. The veterans of Company C, Reinharter's old organization marched behind the Legion Color. A touching feature about the appearance of Company C was the fact that it was led by Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, the Army nurse, who nursed the dying bugler in his last illness at Chaumont, France in December 1918. Miss Reynolds resides in Roslindale and she was assigned

Peirce School

On Tuesday the graduating class of the Peirce School held a class party in the Assembly Hall. Games and charades made up the program. After refreshments had been served, dancing was enjoyed by all.

In order to raise money for a Class Gift a Moving Picture and Vaudeville Entertainment was held on Monday in the Assembly Hall of the Peirce School. A fund of $100 was realized. The money is to be used to buy a violin for the school.

The graduation exercises of the Peirce School took place on Wednesday. The program included an address by Rev. J. Edgar Park of West Newton, selections by the school orchestra under the direction of Miss Marguerite Estavers. The class lesson and the Soldiers' Aid prizes were also awarded.

Owing to disagreement among the judges last year, the Soldiers' Aid prizes of last year were awarded at this time as follows: $5 (1st prize) to Rose Mary Scott, $5 (2nd prize) divided between Rose Mary Scott and Mary Yager. This year's Soldiers' Aid prizes went to Mary Ryan (1st prize) and to Arlene McGourty (2nd prize).

Miss Herrick gave out the Red Cross certificates for Home Nursing, and Richard Carter, President of the Senior Class, in the name of the class, presented the school with $100 to be used for a victory.

Miss Bragg gave two books to the two pupils who had made the greatest gain in weight during the year. These were won by Edith Thompson, and Irma Welsch.

Diplomas were then given by Mrs. Harriet A. Peabody, member of the school committee for Ward 3, as follows:

Emerson School

The graduating exercises of the Ralph Waldo Emerson School were held on Wednesday morning. A brief program of songs and literary selections taken from the regular work of the year was given by the class.

The class presented the school with three pictures: "Hiawatha," "The Firelight Boy," and "Early Transportation."

Mrs. Frank Manning presented each pupil of the senior class with a printed card containing an appropriate verse for graduation.

The senior party was held on Wednesday evening. The grand march by the class opened the program for the evening. Katherine Murphy read the class history, and William Dugan had the class prophecy. Fred Goergio entertained with popular songs. Refreshments were served, and dancing and games concluded the program. Mrs. Frank Fanning and Mrs. Hodge were the guests of the evening.

The Roger Wolcott School

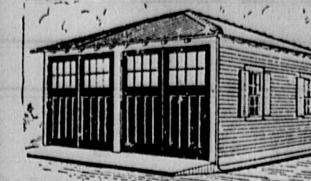

Graduation was held Tuesday morning under the playground elms, the graduates being assisted by the 7th grade and the school alumni. The music was under the direction of Miss Genevieve Doran, except for the school song, which was led by the Class of '21 officers. The diplomas were presented by Mr. Donald M. Hill, the father of the Class President, Malcolm Hill.

Rev. Charles H. Cutler of the Union Church, a true and loyal friend of the children and the school invoked the blessing of God upon the members of the graduating class, their parents, teachers, and upon their graduation exercises.

The speakers included Malcolm Hill, taking for his address, "The Supposed Speech of John Adams upon the Adoption of the Declaration of Independence by Daniel Webster." Hartwell Souther then gave an extract from the Declaration of Independence and Robert Marsh recited "Old Ironsides." Henry Johnson recited the poem, "Columbus"; John Meissner, "Reverence for the Flag," and Jonas Chandler, "The Gettysburg Address."

PLANT—FOX

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Tassel, Jr., on June 17th at noon, when Miss Sally Fox of Manchester, N. H., became the bride of Mr. Thomas C. Plant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Plant of Cotton street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Adelbel Hudson of the First Unitarian Church beneath a bower of roses. The bride wore a lace gown over white satin and veil caught with valley lilies and carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and orchids. Her sister Miss Margaret Fox, attended as maid of honor gowned in rare chiffon with a black hat and carrying Ophelia roses. Peggy Van Tassel as flower girl and Billy Van Tassel as ring bearer with Mr. Wm. Plant, Jr., brother of the groom, as best man, completed the bridal party. Only the immediate families were present at the ceremony which was followed by a wedding breakfast.

After a motor trip through Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Plant will reside in Manchester, N. H.

Convenience and health in the kitchen

IT is often necessary to heat up something in a hurry, in less time than it would take to build up a coal fire. It is then that the convenience of the New Perfection Oil Cook Stove is most appreciated. The heat you want is ready in an instant, in any volume you may need. Remember, the white-tipped flame gives the most heat.

By a simple turn of the wick you can obtain heat for either quick boiling or simmering from any one of the burners. And when you are through with it another turn extinguishes the flame and the kitchen is kept cool and comfortable.

Another convenience for the household is the New Perfection Water Heater. Just as clean, safe and economical as the cook stove. Produces hot water in a few minutes.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves are sold in one, two, three and four-burner sizes—with or without warming cabinet, except the one-burner, which has no cabinet. Most housewives like the cabinet top because of its convenience in keeping dishes warm.

Sold by dealers everywhere.

NEW THEATRE PROPOSED

Mayor Childs gave a hearing last week Thursday afternoon on the matter of issuing a license for the proposed new theatre to be erected corner of Washington and Bacon streets, Newton. Hon. Samuel L. Powers represented the petitioners, the Newton Theatre, Inc., and said that this corporation had been organized with Newton capital of $150,000 of which a considerable part had already been raised and it was hoped to keep it wholly a Newton enterprise.

The building was to be 69 by 160 feet and to cost $175,000. It was to be first class in every respect. The owners proposed to run a show satisfactory to the better class and the films to be approved by a committee of Newton citizens.

Mrs. Dale E. Brown representing the Newton Community Club asked if it was proposed to run shows featuring depravity and other objectionable things, whether objectionable advertisement would be shown and if shows, ostensibly for charity were to be given on Sundays.

Mr. Thomas W. White, acting president of the company said that the enterprise was not wholly a monetary one, otherwise they could have saved money in the construction. They proposed to have a wide stage, comfortable chairs, a first class ventilating and cooling system.

Several ladies present were interested in the use to be made of Bacon street, stating that it was a very narrow street which ought not to be used for parking purposes by patrons of the theatre.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY, NEWTON POST NO. 48, AMERICAN LEGION

At a special meeting of the Auxiliary, held Wednesday evening, June 15th, 1921, the raffle for the Ford car, which was started at the Bazaar in April, was drawn off and the successful coupon for Mr. Michael Cunningham, 118 River street, West Newton, Mass.

Special arrangements were made for the funeral of Earl Reinhalter, June 17th, 1921, at West Newton, the Auxiliary to attend in a body. Resolutions of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Margaret Reinhalter, who is chairman of the Hospital Committee.

Many letters of thanks were received from the relatives of deceased World War veterans, to whom flowers were sent on Memorial Day.

Resolutions were drawn up that the Auxiliary go on record to extend our deepest sympathy and highest respect to Mrs. Galbraith, wife of National Commander Galbraith of the American Legion.

There will be no meetings of the Auxiliary during the summer, the next regular meeting will be the first Monday in September.

PUPILS' RECITAL

Last evening in Leonard House, Universalist Church, Waltham, Fannie Thayer Brodrick of Newton, formerly of Waltham, gave a delightful recital with her pupils. The program included a wide range of selections from those of interest to juvenile performers to such compositions as two preludes by Rachmaninoff. All performers gave evidence of careful training and in many cases evinced conspicuous musical ability.

Miss Edith Bullock, contralto, assisted, and also several pupils from the Elocution class of Ethel Tupper Maxim.

Miss Brodrick is a graduate of the Faetien Pianoforte School where she manifested unusual ability in her teaching. She shows the same thoroughness and musical insight which characterized her own public work. Miss Brodrick possesses a pleasing manner and a magnetic temperament.

ANNUAL OUTING

The Claffin Guard Veteran Association held their annual summer outing on Tuesday with an automobile trip to Camp Devens, and dinner at the Groton Inn, Groton, leaving Newtonville Square at 1:30 P.M., and returning to Newton in the evening.

The finals in the men's handicap singles were played off on Sunday afternoon and the finals in the ladies' handicap singles on Saturday afternoon. A pleasing feature this year is the presentation immediately following completion of final rounds in each tournament of the cups won by players. The winners formerly had to wait several months for cups.

Preliminary Round, Men's Singles, F. W. Davis, 15-4, beat Donald Robins, 15-4, 6-1, 6-1.

Hector Holmes, 15-1, beat H. W. O'Leary, 15-4, 6-2, 6-3.

Stuart Gourley, 3/6, beat Eric Lamb, 5/6, 8-6, 6-2.

Sydney Clark, 3/6, beat J. Buffum, 5/6, 6-3, 6-4.

First Round, R. K. Fletcher, 5/6, beat Dudley Rhodes, 15-4, 6-4, 6-2.

Stanley Newton, 5/6, beat C. Y. Ferris, 15-4, 6-1, 6-1.

E. Buffum, 5/6, beat C. R. Boggs, 3/6, 7-5, 6-3.

H. Holmes beat Davis, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

Gourley beat Clark, 4-6, 9-7, 6-2.

Fred Williams, scratch, beat S. D. Ferguson, 3/6, 6-0, 6-1.

Lawrence Allen, 5/6, beat Ripley Cutter, scratch, 6-3, 6-1.

Richard Oakes, 15-1, beat Sanford Bates, 15-4, 6-0, 9-7.

Second Round, Newton beat Fletcher 7-5, 4-6, 6-4.

E. Buffum beat Holmes, 6-3, 6-1.

Williams beat Oakes, 6-2, 6-3.

Oakes beat Allen, 5-7, 6-2, default.

Semi-Final Round, E. Buffum beat Newton, 6-4, 6-1.

Williams beat Oakes, 6-3, 6-2.

Final Round, Williams beat E. Buffum, 1-6, 6-2, 6-3.

Ladies' Handicap Singles, Game, 11-18.

First Round, Ruth Hunt beat Rachael McKinney, by default.

Elizabeth Bond beat Janet Conway, by default.

Eleanor Walker, scratch, beat Virginia Conway, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Helen Holmes, scratch, beat Beatrice Wright, scratch, 3-6, 6-4, C-4.

Semi-Final Round, Elizabeth Bond beat Ruth Hunt, 6-0, 10-8.

Eleanor Walker beat Helen Holmes, 6-2, 6-4.

Final Round, Eleanor Walker beat Elizabeth Bond, 6-1, 6-4.

BURRILL-HILL

Last week Tuesday, Miss Katharine Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hill of Hyde street, Newton Highlands, became the bride of Mr. Norman Foss Burrill of Corinna, Maine.

Rev. George T. Smart was the officiating clergyman, and Mrs. Helen T. Winchester, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Little Katherine Winchester, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The best man was Winslow Clark of Corinna, Me., and the ushers, Mr. Warren G. Hill, brother of the bride, and Sydney H. Winchester.

A reception was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony, the house being artistically decorated with mountain laurel and daisies.

After a wedding trip through the White Mountains by automobile, Mr. and Mrs. Burrill will make their home in Corinna, Maine.

W. C. T. U.

The annual meeting of the West Newton W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Patterson of Sharon avenue last Monday evening. The lawn party held recently added quite a bit to the treasury.

After the regular business the election of officers for the ensuing year followed. These officers were elected, president, Mrs. M. Millie Beardsley; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Delia Jenkins; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Edna E. Mason; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Dora Sartwell; secretary, Mrs. May L. Sweat; treasurer, Mrs. Helen M. Merriam; Auditor, Mrs. Sarah Hoven-den.

The reports of work done the past year were very gratifying. A social hour with refreshments closed a most interesting meeting. Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Lee were hostesses.

NORUMBEGA PARK

E. K. Lincoln, the famous romantic screen star, will be seen in the American Cinema Super Special, "The Inner Voice," at Norumbega Park the first three days of the week, beginning Monday, June 27th.

"The Inner Voice," like the majority of the other great dramatic successes of the present day and of the past ages, has as its main motive the eternal struggle between right and wrong; vice and virtue.

The scenic settings of this picture are all huge. Neither care nor expense has been spared in the making of this production.

TRAINS HELD UP

Inbound traffic on the main line of the Boston & Albany system was delayed for more than half an hour during the rush period Thursday by the derailment of a work train in the freight yard at Newtonville. One car went off the track just after eight o'clock. The local train that leaves Newtonville at 8:10 o'clock was the first to be blocked and not until 9:15 o'clock was the blockade lifted. Then local trains were diverted to the inbound express train track.

NINETY YEARS OF SERVICETO NEWTON PEOPLE

In 1829 the NEWTON SAVINGS BANK was originated by the Newton Temperance Society and Lyceum. On June 17th, 1831 it was incorporated under Massachusetts Laws, being the sixteenth Savings Bank in the state.

At the annual meeting in 1842 it was voted, "That if it can conveniently be done the funds of this institution be so invested in mortgages that not more than $500.00 at any one time be invested in any other way."

From that day to this the Newton Savings Bank has been a real factor in the growth of the community, and has at the present time over $2,765,000, invested in mortgages on Newton property alone.

The State law now allows Savings Banks to invest not more than 70% of their deposits in mortgages. At the present time this bank has approximately 60% of its deposits so invested.

The dividend rate has always been the highest rate consistent with safety. Beginning in 1829 on a four per cent. basis the surplus earnings were divided each fifth year among the depositors. In 1834 an extra dividend of 10% was declared. In 1839, 15 extra. In 1844, 10% extra. In 1849, 10% extra. In 1854, 17½% extra. Since 1917 our dividend rate has been 4½%.

The growth of deposits reflects the growth of our city. In 1830 the bank had deposits of $278. In 1860, $20,500. In 1875, $400,000. In 1882, $1,000,000. In 1892, $2,000,000. In 1906, $6,000,000, and in 1921, $8,115,000.

The Newton Savings Bank is proud of the intimate place it has in the life of this community. As it enters the last decade in a century of service it hopes to have the privilege of serving a constantly widening circle of depositors.

*"The Place for My Savings"FATAL ACCIDENT

Jacob Shriberg of West street, Newton, was almost instantly killed and five other persons were injured at about 11 o'clock Sunday night, when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a post while taking a curve on Newton street, Weston.

It is believed that the turn was made too sharply and the machine struck the post, throwing the passengers out, while the automobile was wrecked.

Harry Roiter of 242 Adams street, Weston, and Harry Sherier of 229 Chapel street, Newton, were taken in a passing automobile to the Waltham Hospital, suffering with cuts and bruises, but their injuries are not believed serious. Shriberg died before arriving at the hospital. Three women who were in the automobile were taken in a passing machine to the Newton Hospital.

MILITARY FUNERAL

to lead Reinhalter's comrades, when her identity became known to Major Henry D. Cormerais, who was in charge of the funeral. Clad in her natty blue uniform, with her overseas cap denoting foreign service, Miss Reynolds led the Company from the house to the church.

The casket borne on a gun-carriage manned by members of Battery C, 1st Field Artillery, from Commonwealth Armory, brought up in rear of Company C and the long line of mourners followed in carriages and autos.

At St. Bernard's church hundreds of mourners had gathered to pay their tribute to the departed soldier. Rev. John Allston officiated at the Mass.

As the body was being borne into the church, Company H, drawn up on Washington street, facing the church, presented arms, while the Legion and Company C, drawn up on either side of the passage way to the main entrance, gave the hand salute. The same procedure was followed when the remains were taken from the church to the caisson.

Upon leaving the church, the cortège proceeded over Washington, Waltham and High streets to Calvary Cemetery, where another throng had gathered. Rev. William J. Farrell, former Chaplain of the 102nd Field Artillery, A. E. F., conducted the committal services, while the mourners stood bareheaded in the blazing sun. When the last rites of the church had been administered, the firing squad from Company H lined up beside the open grave and three parting volleys were fired. Bugler William Foley, who served with Reinhalter throughout the war sounded Taps over the casket of his dead comrade; the final tribute of a soldier.

Although he did not die in actual battle, the story of Reinhalter's death is probably as tragic as any who fell under fire. He served on every front with his company and his courage in battle won for him the commendation of his superiors. Knowing no fear he performed his duty without complaint. During the last few days of the final drive in the Argonne forest, he became slightly ill, but he refused to leave his organization. With the Armistice, he finally returned to a Base Hospital, the victim of the exposure that undermined his health. A few weeks later he died of pneumonia in Base Hospital at Châlons.

His body reached Newton on Monday, June 13th and was placed in the State Armory, West Newton, out of which he marched on the eventful June 25th, 1917. From the time the body was taken to the Armory until the hour of the funeral, comrades of his old company, in pairs, stood guard, night and day. On Thursday the body was taken to his home.

The pall bearers, all members of Company C, were as follows: William E. Tolan, Leo Taaffe, James A. Saunders, Arthur L. Gau, Raymond F. Gibbons, Raymond W. Taaffe, Clement L. Barry, and David L. Keeffe. Thomas Tolan, also of Company C, marched in rear of the caisson carrying the bugle and steel helmet used by Bugler Reinhalter in France.

Mayor Edwin O. Childs led the delegation of city officials who attended the church services.

COLBY—LOWELL

A wedding of much local interest was that of Miss Beatrice Marlon Lowell to Mr. Clarence Conant Colby. Miss Lowell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Payson Tucker Lowell of Cushing street, Newton Highlands, and Mr. Colby is of Newton. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Thursday. A bower effect of white lattice and Southern greenery with roses was most attractive. Rev. Theodore R. Ludlow, rector of St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a gown of kitten's ear satin with cascades of old Spanish lace made over an accordion plaited gown of georgette having a court train with festoons of satin roses, a cap of rose point lace, and a tulip veil. She carried a bouquet of lilles-of-the-valley and white Killarney roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ralph B. Webster of Brookline. Beatrice and Elizabeth Cody of Newton were flower girls being dressed in pink organdie with blue ribbon sashes. They carried gilt baskets filled with Mignon roses.

A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony, a stringed orchestra aided by the piano, furnishing the music.

After October 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Colby will be at home at 31 Farlow road, Newton.

SAIL BOAT RACE

About fifty people attended an interesting event held at Crystal Lake, Newton Centre, Tuesday afternoon, when boys from Grades VII and VIII of the Hyde School, Newton Highlands, and the Claffin School, Newtonville, competed in a sailboat race.

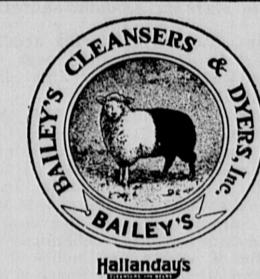

There were two entering classes. The first class was composed of thirty-one inch boats, featuring "Comet," owned by Leonard Clark, and "V.L.", owned by Ted Barnes, Newton Highlands. The second class consisted of twenty-four inch boats and entered "Shirley D.", owned by William Lodge; "Sea Bird," Theodore Bjornson; "Walter S." Robert Sisson of Claffin School; "Ula S." owned by Stuart Hills and "Dutchy," Byran Wilkerson of Newton Highlands.

The judges of the race were M. T. Instructor Pholman, Ralph Paterson and George Eames.

First honors in class one were carried off by "Comet." The results of the second class were as follows:

First honors "Ula S." "Shirley D." sailed in second and "Sea Bird" came in a close third.

The race was conducted through the efforts of the Manual Training Instructor Edmund B. Alger. The boats were made by each owner in the woodworking shop at the school during school hours. With the marked success of this race it is hoped this may prove to be an annual event and plans are now under way for competition with other districts.

PARISH MEETING

At a special meeting of the Channing Religious Society, held Tuesday evening, the resignation of Rev. Harry Lutz as minister was accepted to take effect September 1, and the following vote of appreciation was adopted:

"The members of Channing Religious Society wish to place on record their grateful recognition of the faithful and able ministry of Rev. Harry Lutz, the longest term of service of any minister in the history of this church, with one exception. Not only in spoken word enriched by his scholarly attainments, but by the example of his own life and high ideals he has brought to the church his message of inspiration. To Mrs. Lutz and her constant, tactful and unselfish cooperation in church work our heartfelt thanks are due; while the ties of friendship formed by Mr. and Mrs. Lutz and their sons with fellow workers in Channing Church will remain unchanged by time or distance."

Joseph B. Simpson was elected a trustee in place of his brother, the late G. Fred Simpson.

A committee to consider candidates for minister was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Frederic E. Harwood, Miss Jessie W. Fisher, Miss Maud Henry, Robert G. Howard, Sidney Peterson and Liverus H. Howe, together with the members of the standing committee, the clerk and the treasurer.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

On June 17th, Mr. Henry W. Kendall of Kendall terrace, Newton, celebrated his 80th birthday. As the birthday fell upon a holiday, the lawn was decorated with flags, and the house filled with flowers.

Between sixty and seventy friends and neighbors came to offer their congratulations. There were many gifts also including three Birthday cakes.

Mr. Kendall has lived in Newton fifty years, and has been actively connected with many clubs and other organizations of the city.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kendall, Miss Ella Cox and Mrs. Harry Lutz.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE

An interesting conference on the work of Young People in the Episcopal Church was held at the Church of the Messiah, corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Auburn street, Auburndale, on Sunday afternoon and evening, June 19.

In the opinion of many who attended this conference will have an important bearing upon the future development of Young People's work in the Episcopal Church in the Diocese and State of Massachusetts.

Rectors, Adult Leaders, and young people from different parts of the state gathered to hear reports and discussion on a growing movement in the Episcopal Church, known under the names of The Young People's Fellowship, or The Young People's Conference.

The gathering was held under the auspices of the Young People's Conferences of Messiah, Auburndale and St. John's, Winthrop, where this type of work has been developing since 1919.

Fifteen clergy and over one hundred representatives were present from twenty-two parishes in the Diocese of Massachusetts, and Western Massachusetts.

Rev. Percival M. Wood of the Messiah presided at the afternoon meeting held in the chapel at five o'clock. Words of Welcome were extended to the visiting groups by the President of the Messiah league, Miss Helen Hardy, and by Miss Eleanor Whipple, President of the St. John's league. The history and work of the two leagues during the past year were then presented by Miss Dorothy Miss Kelly, Winthrop, for St. John's, and John Hebeck, Jr., for the Messiah league.

Recent national developments in Young People's Conferences of a similar nature in the Episcopal Church, were outlined by adult leaders, Mrs. L. N. Brockbank of Winthrop, assisted by Miss Eleanor Whipple speaking of the development of the work along the Pacific coast, and Mrs. P. M. Wood of Auburndale, assisted by the Misses Marie Patchett and Adaline Hall, who spoke of the work in Texas and the Middle West.

The second part of the afternoon conference was devoted to addresses on the future development of the movement. Rev. P. M. Wood spoke on the subject "A Rector's Hopes for the Future." He was followed by Rev. John W. Suter, Jr., Secretary of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, whose topic was "Religious Education through Self-Expression." A discussion followed.

After the supper a typical Young People's service and conference was held in the chapel, led by Miss Helen Hardy, assisted by Charles Valley, Linwood Fessenden and representatives of the Messiah and St. John's groups.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SMITH

Capt. Nathan G. Smith of 64 Gray Cliff road, Newton Centre, died Saturday morning after a long illness. He had been in poor health since 1914 when the outbreak of war in Europe, where he was traveling, made his return a series of hardships from which he never recovered. Capt. Smith was 81 years old. He is survived by his wife.

Capt. Smith has lived in Newton for the last three years. Before that time he spent much time in traveling, but up to the time of his retirement from business in 1890 he made his home in Washington street, Roxbury. He was prominent in Boston politics 40 years ago and held many offices in the Boston City Government, representing the Roxbury District in the City Government and in the Common Council for many years.

He was born in Roxbury, March 30, 1840, and graduated from the Boston Latin School. He enlisted in the 3d Massachusetts Regiment at the outbreak of the Civil War and served throughout the rebellion, being mustered out with the rank of captain. After leaving the service, he remained in Louisiana for two years, in cooperation with the reconstruction work. On his return to Boston he formed the Jamaica Pond Ice Company and for many years was an officer of that firm. He retired in 1890.

Capt. Smith was a Knight Templar member of A. O. U. W., a comrade of Post 26, G. A. R., and of the Loyal Legion. Funeral services were held Monday at 2:30 in the chapel in Forest Hills Cemetery, and were conducted by the Rev. Barrett Tyler of Chestnut Hill.

DEATH OF MRS. BINNEY

Mrs. Mary Harriet Binney, daughter of Mr. J. B. Lovett, for many years postmaster at Newtonville, died at her home on Walnut street, Newtonville, on Wednesday in her 89th year.

Mrs. Binney was born in Cuba, and came to Newtonville when a child. She was educated in the Newton schools, and forty-seven years ago married Mr. Lewis E. Binney. There are no children.

Mr. and Mrs. Binney are members of Central Congregational Church, where in her earlier years, Mrs. Binney was an active worker, as well as in the various women's organizations of the city.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock at her late residence, Rev. William E. Strong, a personal friend, officiating, and the burial will be in Newton Cemetery.

THE ZONING SYSTEM

A public meeting will be held at the Newton Club, Newtonville, next Tuesday evening, June 28th, under the auspices of the Newton Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of having the proposed Zoning System for the City of Newton explained in detail.

Mr. John P. Fox of New York, who is an expert on the Zoning System will speak, and Mr. Arthur A. Shurtliff will give lantern slides to illustrate the system described by Mr. Fox.

This is one of the most important matters that has been agitated for some time as it will affect every property owner in that it will set aside different sections in which there may be single dwellings, two-family houses, stores, factory sites, etc.

Every one interested is urged to attend.

—Sara Murray Jordan, A. B., Ph.D., of Newton, representing the Medical School, a graduate of Radcliffe and of the University of Munich, spoke on "The Basal Rate of Metabolism as an Aid to Diagnosis," dealing with the "chemical process that makes it possible for us to live and work" at the Commencement exercises on Monday at Tufts College.

—The two plays given last Thursday night at the Methodist Church were great success. The cast of the first, in one act farce, was comprised of Mrs. George Barber, Mrs. Franklin Jones, Mrs. Arthur Mansfield, Mrs. Effie Nagle, Mrs. Frances Friend, Mrs. Arthur Flinn, and Miss Marguerite Green. In the second play, "The Peabody Pew," Mrs. Bertha Hartzell read parts of the beautiful love story, and the principal parts were taken by Mrs. Dale Brown (Nancy) and Mrs. Eldred Pepperson as Dustin Peabody, the descendant of the owners of the famous Peabody Pew. A large cast made up the members of the Women's Sewing Club.
